DEDICATION

BUFORD A. BIBLE

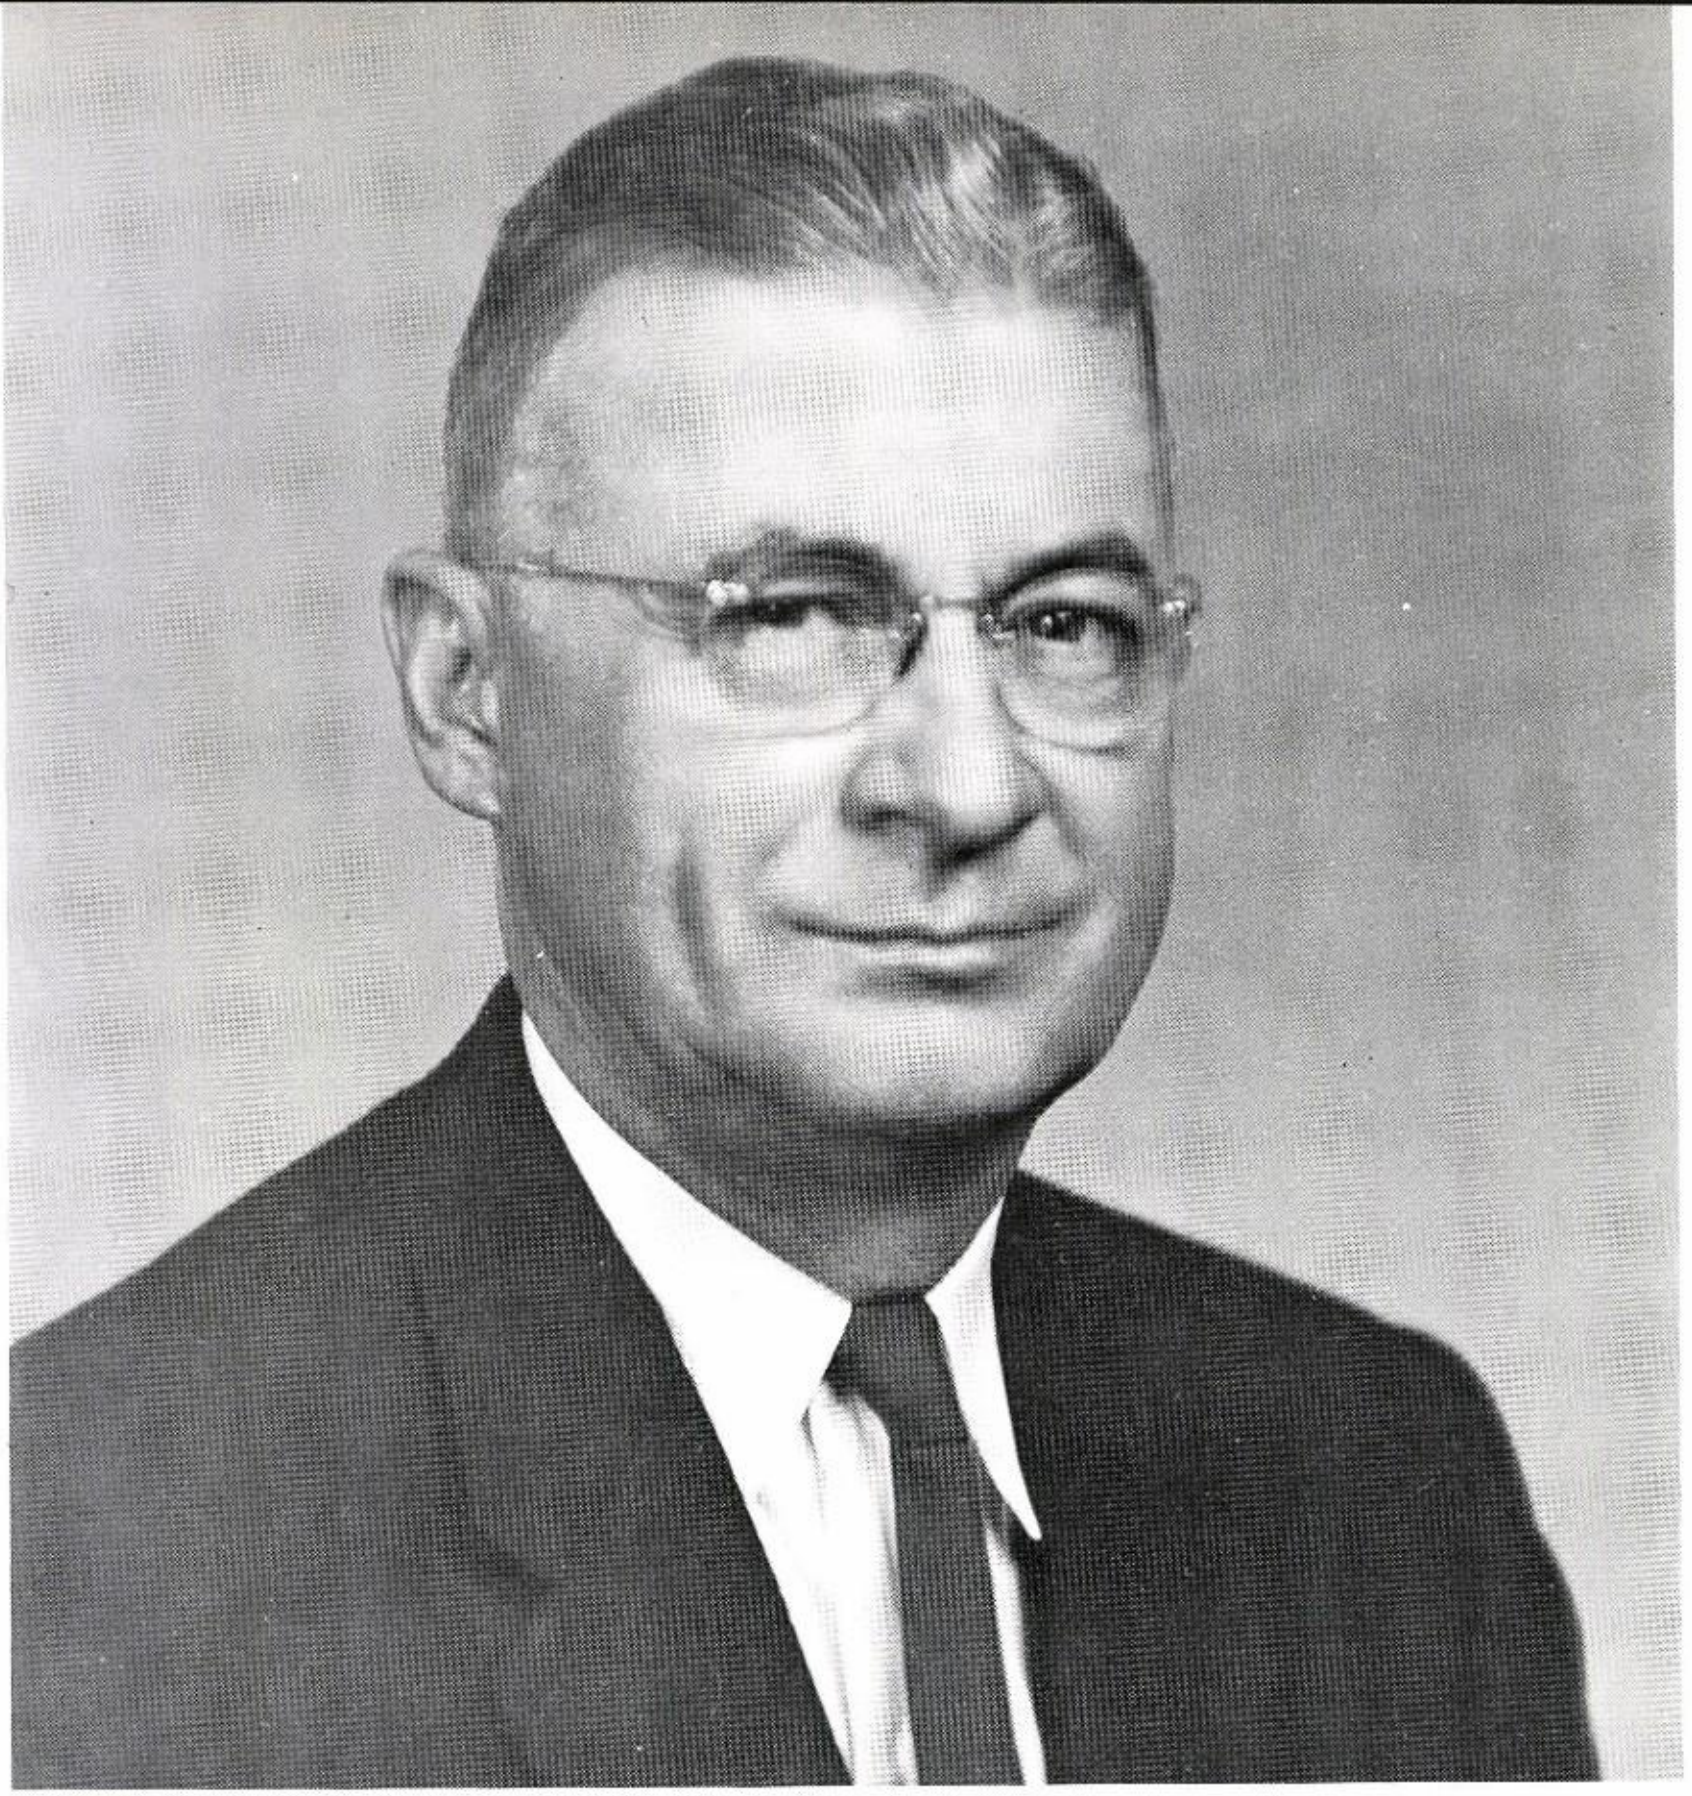
Good Will Goes With Him

We, the BEACON staff of 1961, dedicate this book to Mr. Buford A. Bible. Mr. Bible, sincere in any help or advice to youth, continually strives to inspire them to better themselves and their surroundings.

Indispensable to East High, Mr. Bible is a versatile person. During Mr. Gardner's illness, he assumed with efficiency the added responsibility of Assistant Principal.

Since he has been teaching mathematics, he has practically memorized algebra and geometry textbooks. He is respected for his understanding attitude not only in class but also by the boys in Key Club.

A veteran coach, Mr. Bible has directed our basketball players through a successful season. He is an all-around person, liked by all East High for his friendliness and good humor.



L. GALE GARDNER

Friendliness Is His Motto

Mr. L. Gale Gardner's past years of experience have made him an able leader, ready to cope with the various situations that confront him every day. With his foresight and capable guidance, he has helped East to become an outstanding school.

Although handicapped by illness, he has done an efficient job in performing his duties this year. All the students welcome his friendly "Hey," which seems to be his trade mark wherever he goes. East could not want a better principal than Mr. Gardner.

Okey and DeRobertis

Mrs. Judith Okey, choir director, and Mr. Fred DeRobertis, band director, reflect their magnetizing personalities at an impromptu performance. Through the constant work of these two fine artists, East High School students are conscious of music in its many phases; and have achieved recognition throughout the city for their many enjoyable programs.

Seehorn

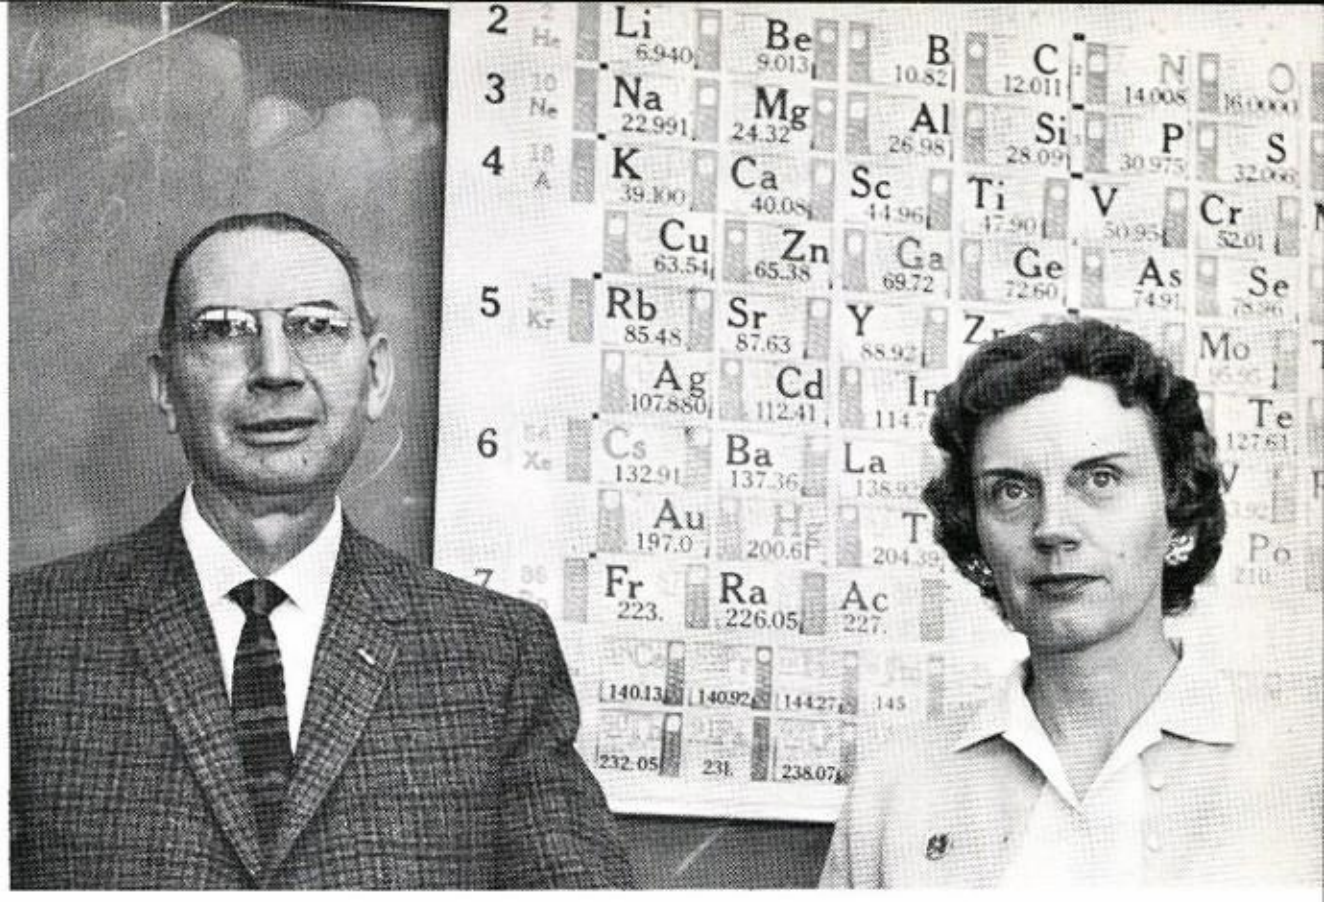
Mrs. Emma Seehorn, secretary of East High School, pauses momentarily from her busy schedule of school duties. The responsibility that she must assume in this position is done in a most efficient manner, the same manner as portrayed in all business matters connected with the office.

Neubert and Bird

Miss Jessie Neubert, American history teacher, and Miss Ruby Bird, teacher of American and Early European history, are discussing the 1960 Presidential election. Both of these very active teachers agree that history repeats itself, and encourage their students to keep abreast of the times. Activities for these two apart from the classroom include sponsor of the senior class and director of dramatics, respectively.

Browning and Bennett

Mr. C. A. Browning, chemistry and physics instructor, and Mrs. Christine Bennett, biology teacher, discuss a forthcoming experiment prevalent to their respective fields. With frequent reference to the Periodic Chart of the Atoms, they are able to make necessary decisions rapidly. These decisions give students assurance and confidence as they prepare themselves for science activities such as the annual Science Fair.

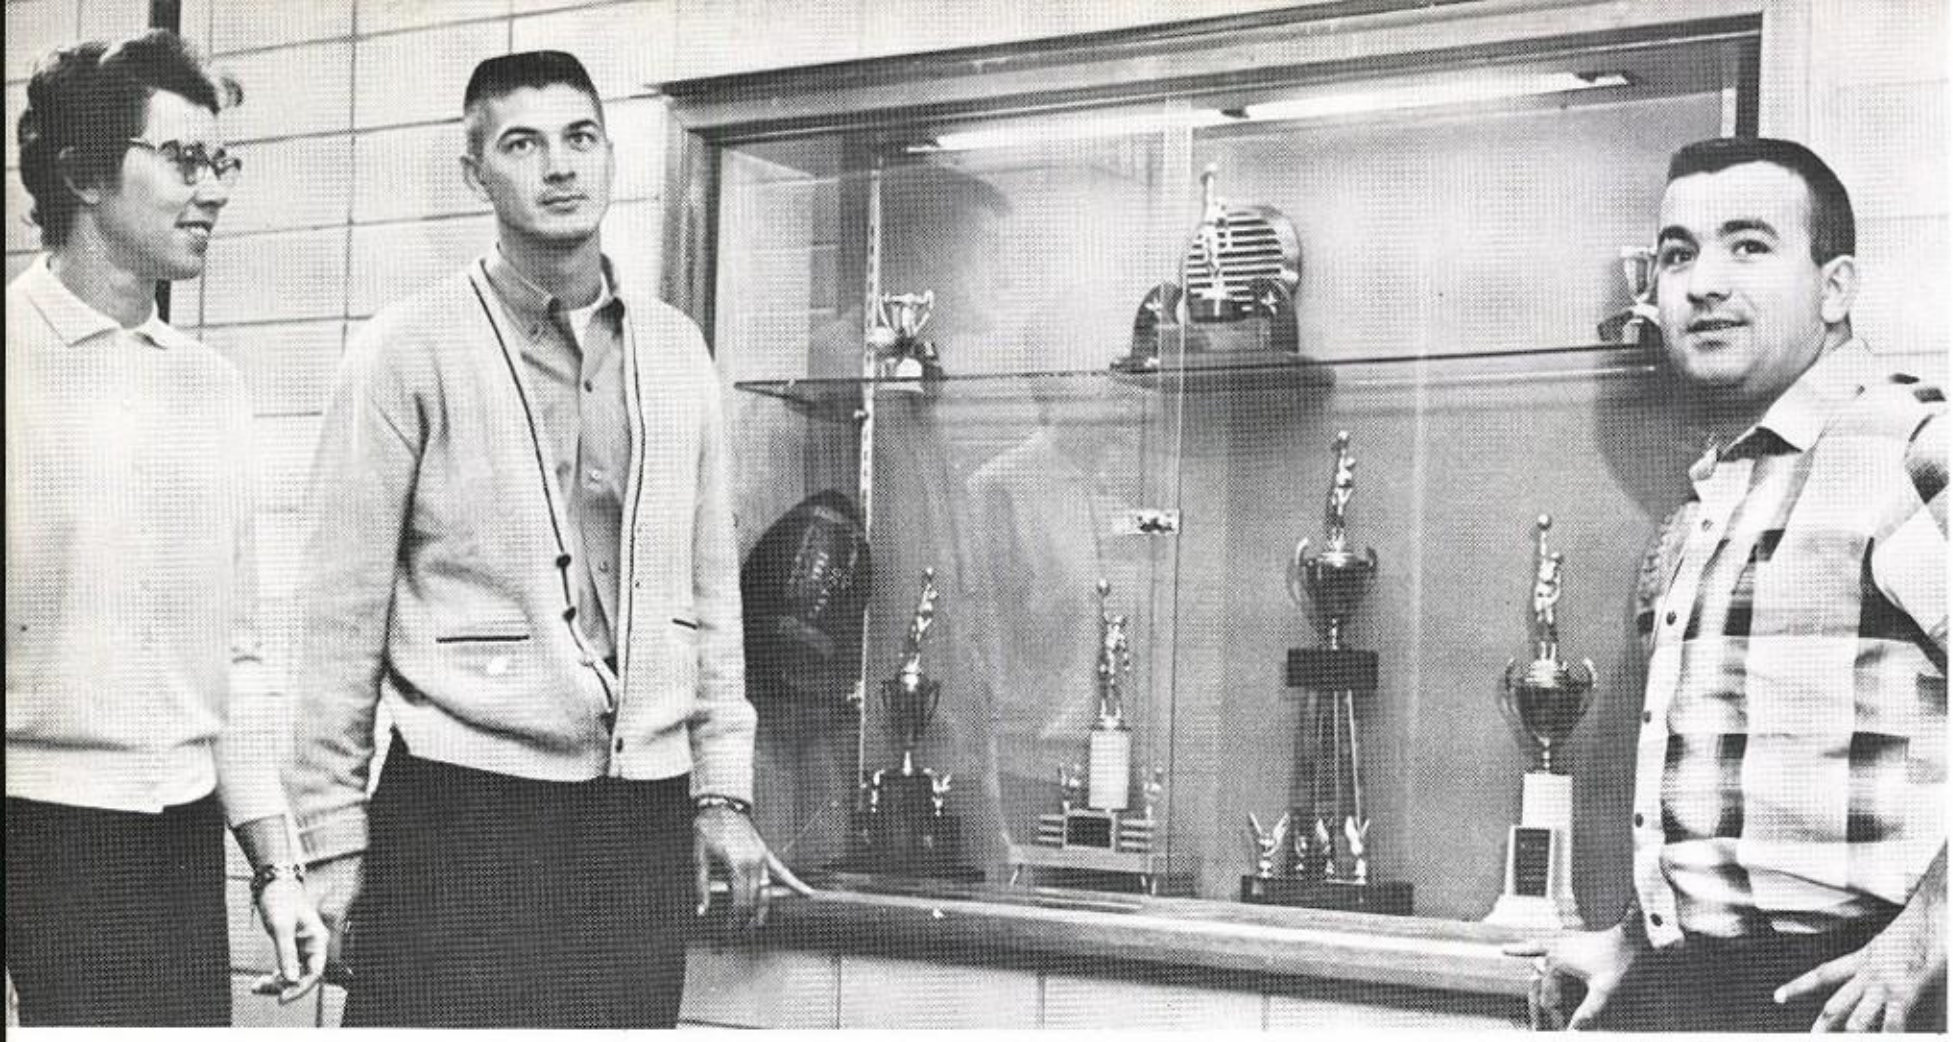


Scarbrough

Miss Mary K. Scarbrough is pictured in her office that is so familiar to East High students. Through her continuous work many students have discovered major interest fields, received notice of available scholarships, taken necessary examinations for college entrance, and revised schedules for the students' benefit. In addition to being guidance counselor she teaches American history and is sponsor of the Student Council.

Kelly and Tatem

Mrs. Jessie Kelly, health instructor, and Miss Guerrant Tatem, home economics instructor, are seated in the dining room of the home economics department. Both teachers stress the need of a proper diet in their classes. Mrs. Kelly emphasizes a well-balanced diet for necessary body functions, while Miss Tatem teaches practical application of a balanced diet. Mrs. Kelly also supervises the medical room, and Miss Tatem is in charge of the audio-visual aids for the school.

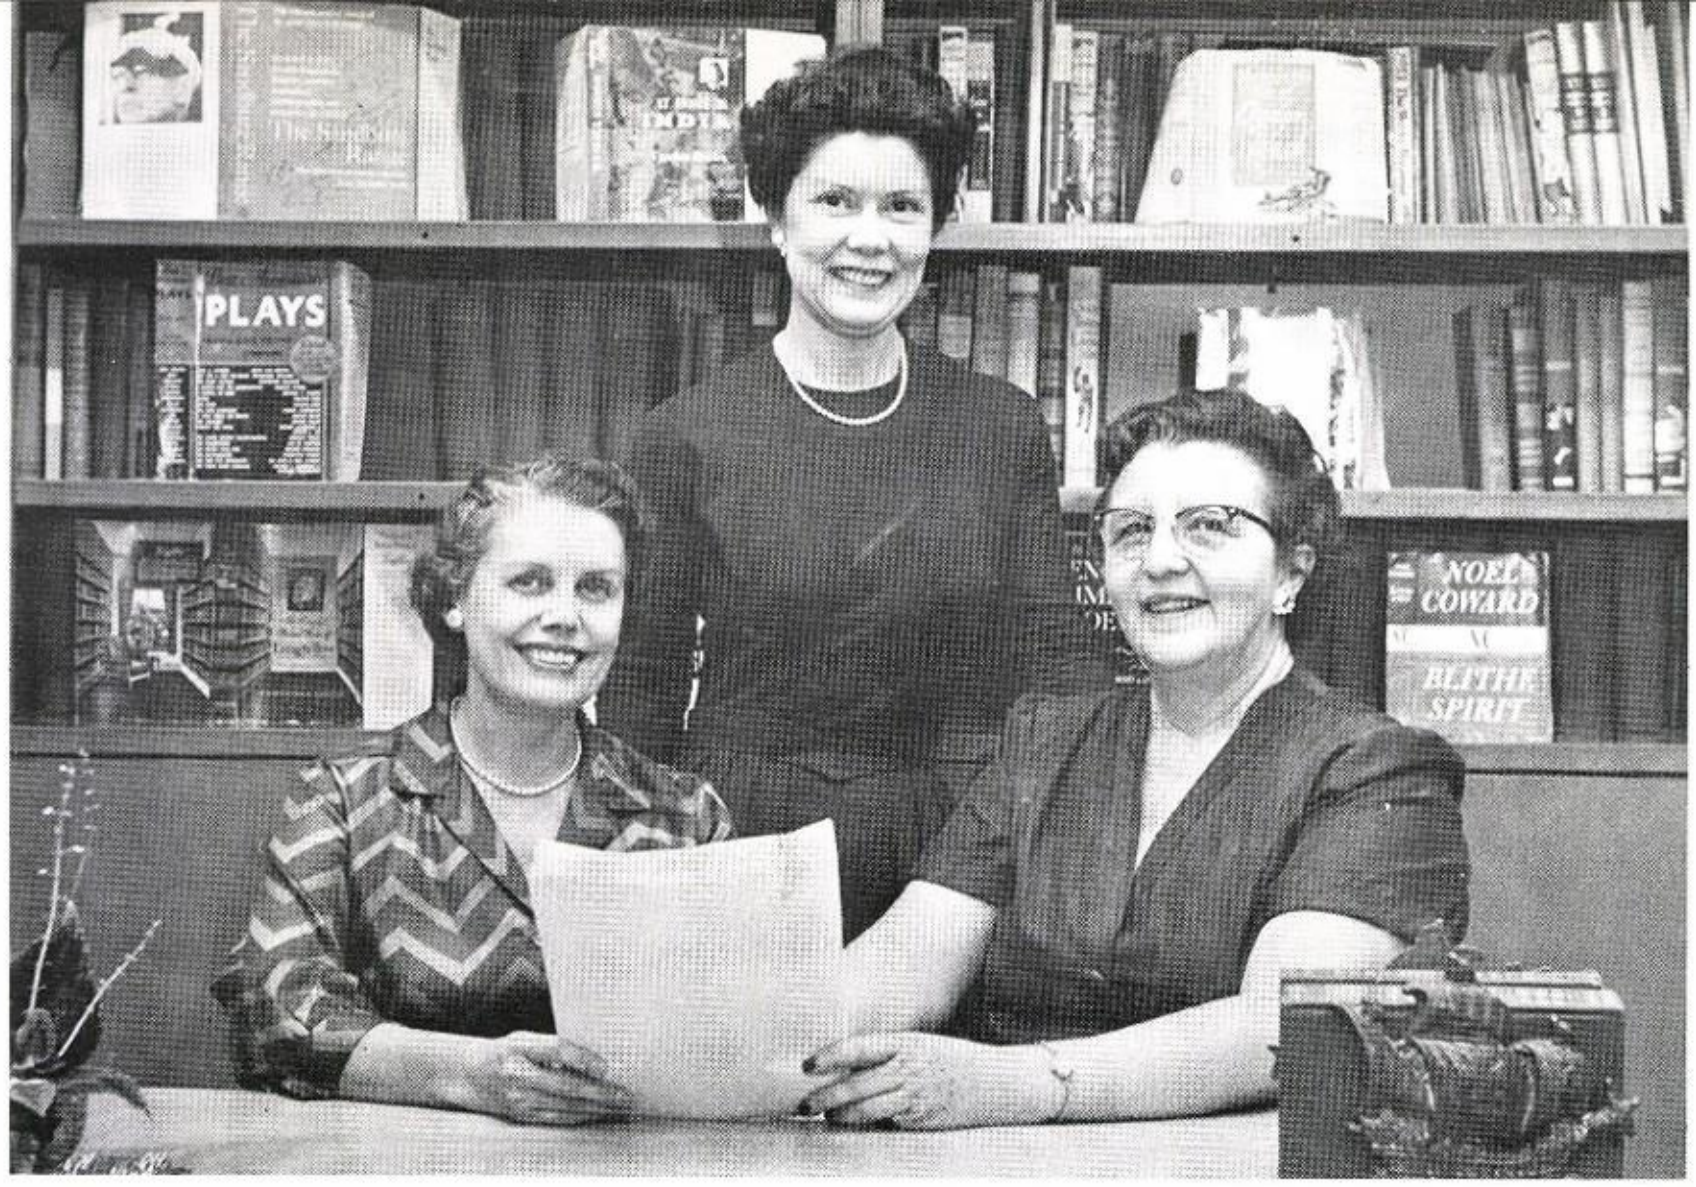


Hankins, Hall, and Polston

Mrs. Retha Hankins and Mr. Frank Hall, girls' and boys' physical education teachers, respectively, stand with Mr. Bob Polston, head football coach, viewing some of the trophies recently placed in the new trophy case near the gymnasium. All three instructors are principal leaders in developing the bodies of the students and promoting sports of all types. Mrs. Hankins also sponsors the cheerleaders, Y-Teens, and Pep Club; Mr. Polston is a general science instructor, and Mr. Hall is an assistant coach.

Allred, Naberhuis, and Campbell

Mrs. Ann Allred, typing and shorthand instructor, Miss Jean Naberhuis, typing teacher and distributive education advisor, and Mr. W. M. Campbell, bookkeeping instructor and supervisor of the bank, inspect copies made on the Heyer Spirit Duplicator. This machine is one of several new machines that have recently been added to the business department. Mrs. Allred is also the Anchor club advisor, and Miss Naberhuis is in charge of the store and sponsors the BLUE and GRAY.

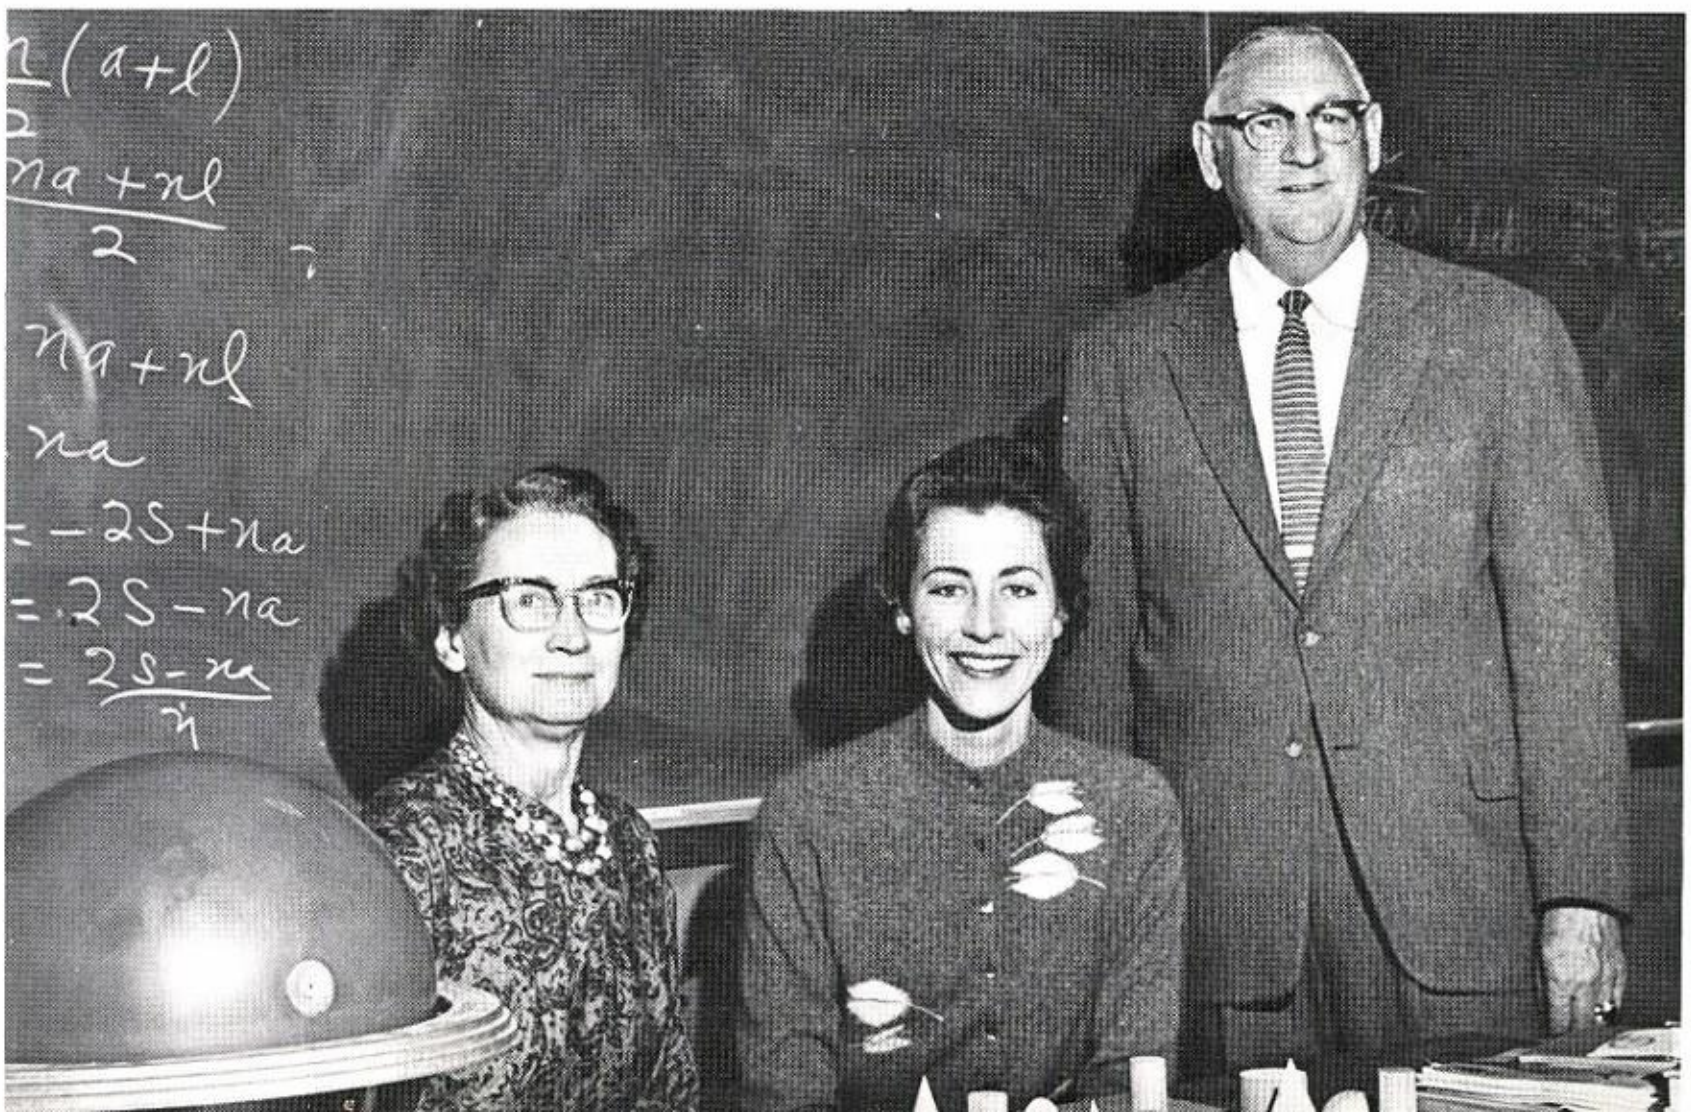


McSpadden, Seale, and Dowell

Mrs. Jessie McSpadden, Mrs. Evelyn Seale, and Miss Ora Dowell, junior, sophomore, and senior English instructors, are reading essays submitted for competition in Youth Appreciation Week. These teachers bear the major responsibility for training students in the correct methods for oral and written expression of their native language. Mrs. Seale is also the sponsor of the National Honor Society.

Million, Herndon, and Bible

Miss Gladys Million, Miss Lynda Herndon, and Mr. Buford Bible are discussing the correlation between algebra and geometry. All three teachers realize the necessity and importance attached to the role of mathematics in this scientific age. Miss Million sponsors the Future Teachers Club; Miss Herndon, the Beacon; and Mr. Bible is athletic director and serves as acting principal during the absence of the principal.



Blackett and LeSueur

Mrs. Patti Blackett, art instructor, and Mr. Bob LeSueur, instructor in mechanical drawing, woodworking, and metals, admire the showcase featuring the craftsmanship of students in metals. Students learn the art of using their hands with their imagination and creativity in their classes. The drive and interest exhibited by these teachers are evident in their classes; and the Art Club, sponsored by Mrs. Blackett, and the track team, coached by Mr. LeSueur.

Fugate

Mr. John Fugate, language instructor, daily intrigues his students in Spanish, French, and Latin. Not only is Mr. Fugate a fluent speaker in the languages he teaches, but he also has an understanding of Russian, Italian, and Dutch. This outstanding linguist is sponsor of the Spanish and Latin Clubs, and also sponsor of the junior class.

Woods and Bennett

Miss Colleen Bennett, librarian, and Mrs. Virginia Woods, Bible instructor, are discussing the need of more frequent use of the dictionary by students. Mrs. Woods, a comparatively new face at East has won the respect and friendship of both teachers and students. Miss Bennett, a familiar figure, is always willing to give her aid and assistance when needed. The majority of the bulletin boards and display cases are under Miss Bennett's direction, too.

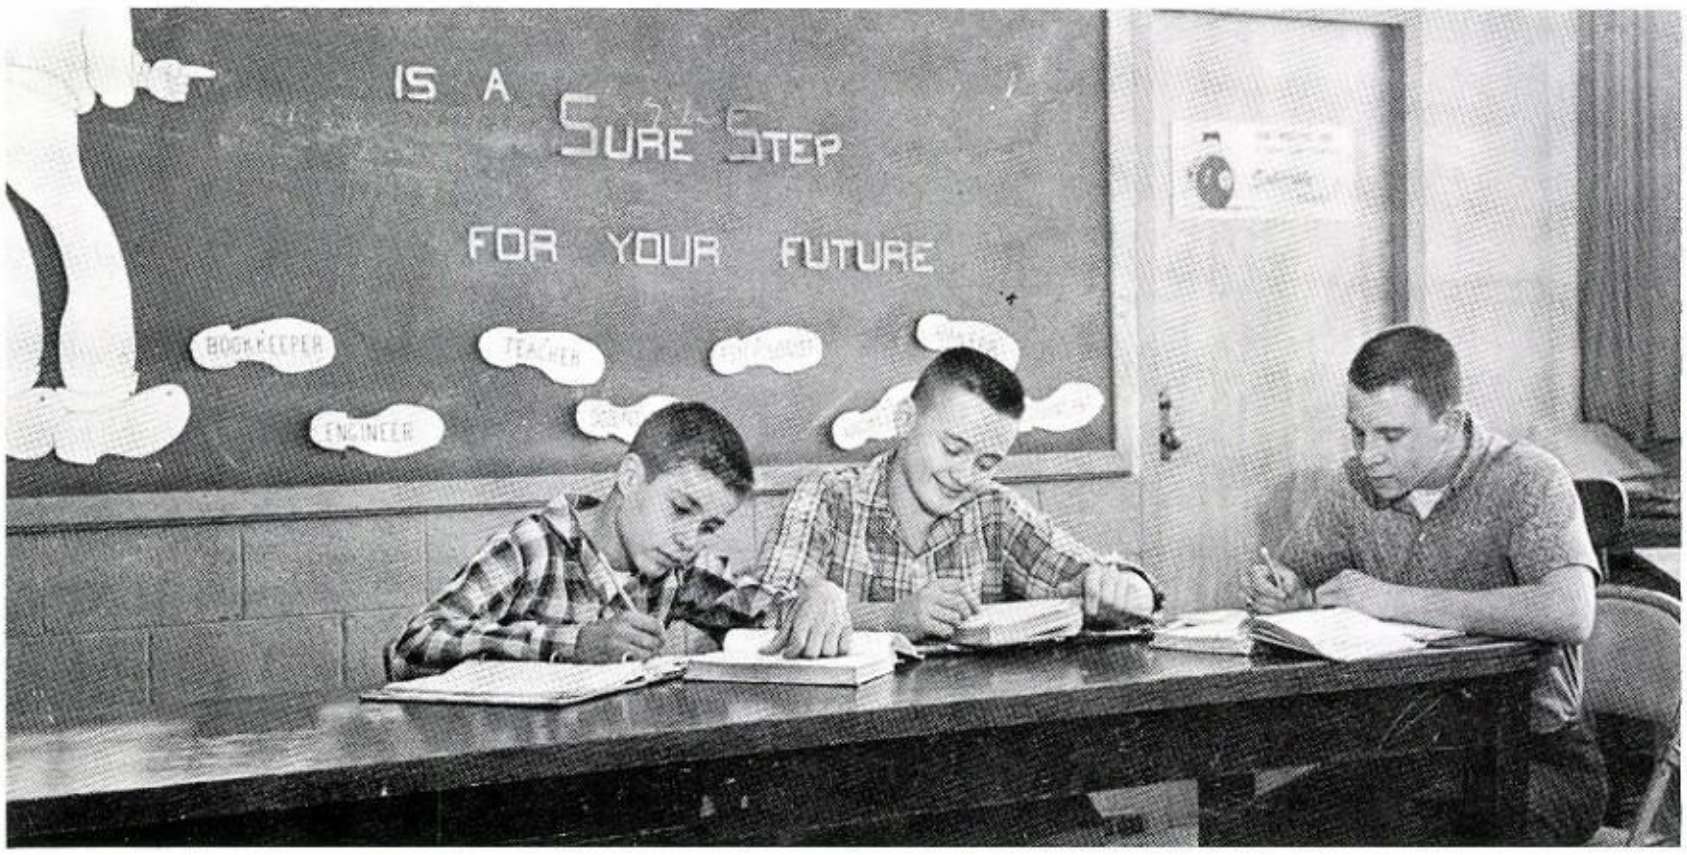
Algebra . . . Stepping Stone To Higher Math



Mathematics is a sure step for your future. This statement is proved by the increasing enrollment in basic algebra courses each year. Among students working diligently to digest basic parts of fundamental processes are Jerry Smith, Vernon Wise, and Bernie Stuart.

Plane Geometry Prepares For College

Plane geometry students pay close attention to Mr. Bible as he explains a theorem. By manipulation of the theorems, construction, axioms, corollaries, and postulates they solve problems and give a definite reason for each step of a proof. The majority of advanced mathematics students is college bound.

Our OBLIGATIONS to Our Country
A BILL of DUTIES to VOTE to pay TAXES to support LAW and ORDER to live PEACEABLY
to meet FINANCIAL obligations to respect the FLAG to respect public and private PROPERTY to serve on JURIES
to assist COURTS in giving evidence to assist public agents in preventing CRIME and detecting criminals to serve as needed in the ARMED FORCES and PRODUCTION EFFORT to help choose good LEADERS and representatives to SUPPORT the leaders elected to abide by MAJORITIES to preserve the rights of MINORITIES to be tolerant of RELIGIOUS beliefs
A PLEDGE of LOYALTIES
A DETERMINATION to LEARN and to APPLY the KNOWLEDGE

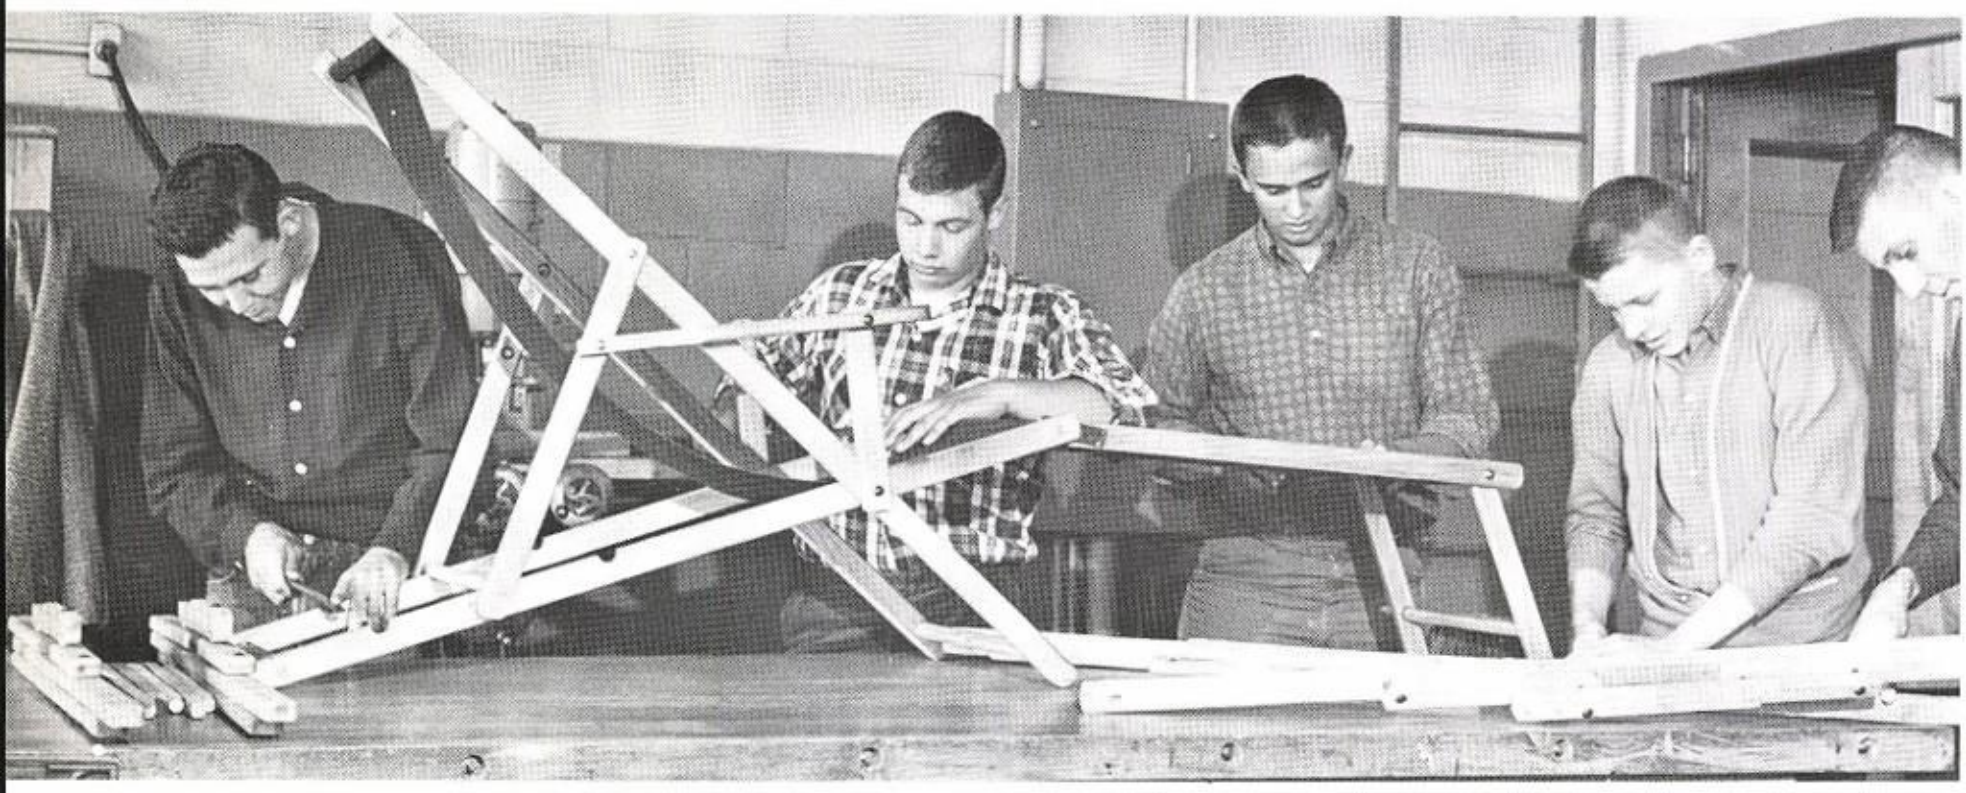
Judy Carpenter, Sandra Edwards, and David Booher are learning of their obligations to their country in a freshman civics class. Charts, such as this one, clarify many areas of study. Areas such as city, county, state, and federal government operations are studied.

Civics Cites Obligations

History Motivates Current Events

A panel discussion is in progress in Miss Jessie Neubert's history class. Studying the history of our country is a requirement of every junior or senior at East High. Current affairs are reviewed approximately once a week, thus providing each student with an opportunity to express his own views on current items.

Woodworks Encourages Craftsmanship



Jack Doane, Lorry Ruth, and Max Witt add the finishing touches to a lawn chair, while Danny Meador and John Blackburn begin assembling parts of another one. The woodwork shop is well-stocked thus providing the necessary equipment for the boys to gain skill in craftsmanship.

Mechanical Drawing Requires Precision

Phil Sharp explains to Mike Roberts, David Jack, and Ronnie Fry how he made this particular design. Mr. Bob LeSueur teaches mechanical drawing students that accuracy in small details is important in completing a design.

Metals Provide Practical Experience

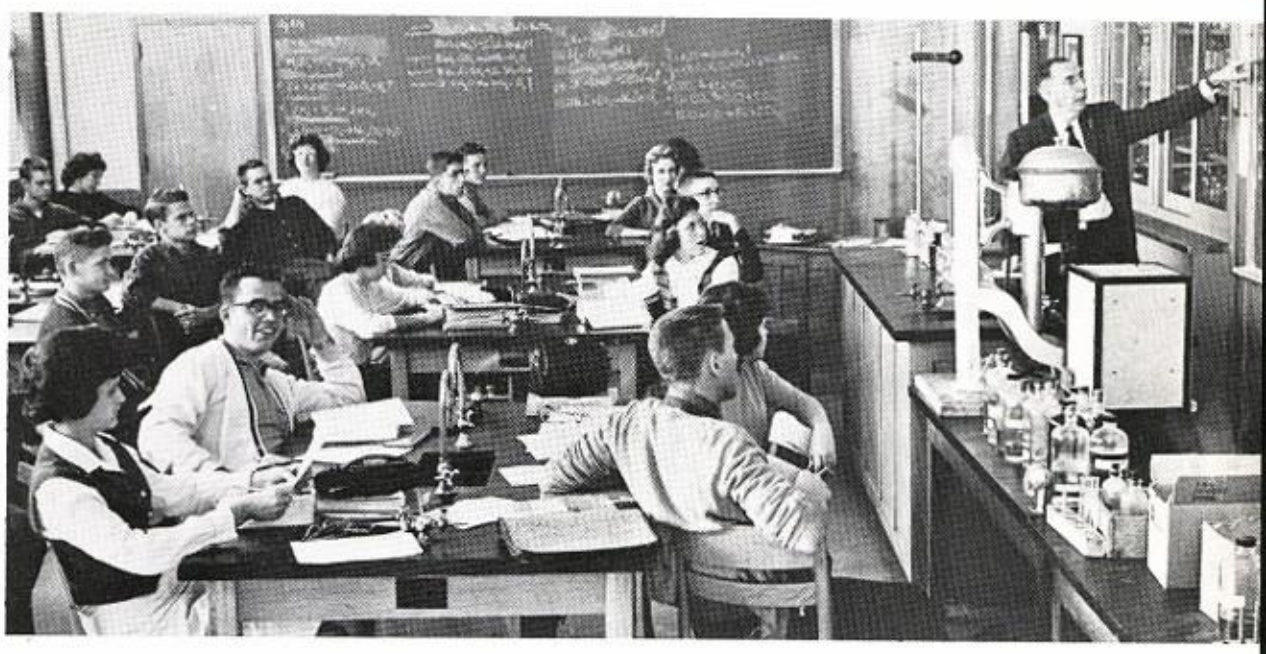
Ray Qualls, Robert Vandergriff, George Smith, Sammy Roback, James Inman, and Bobby Kite are examining the lathes in metals shop. These machines are only a few which boys enrolled in this course must know how to operate.

Lab Diversifies Interests

Biology students are studying specimens of microscopic size with the new instruments purchased for the department. Laboratory periods substantiate the ideas these students are exposed to in classroom sessions. Dissection of animals and plants such as the rose, hydra, and frog are included in the course.

Chemistry Challenges All

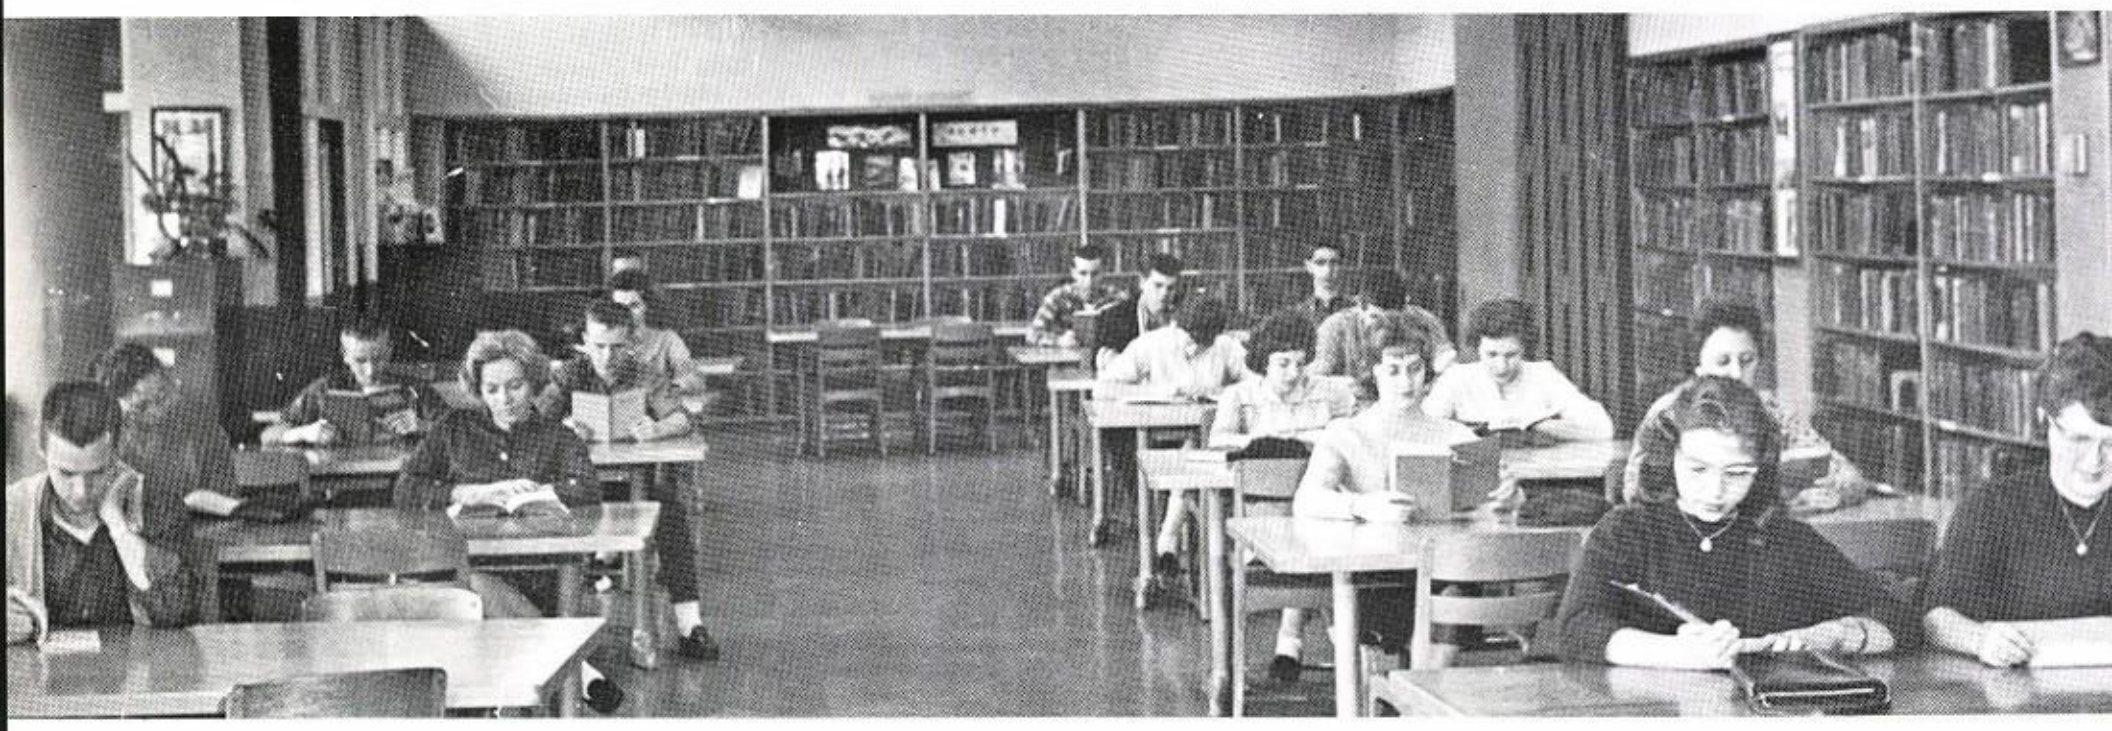
Mr. C. A. Browning is explaining how to balance an equation while the class gives him their rapt attention. They know that it is necessary to learn this before beginning an experiment in the laboratory. Each student has an opportunity to prove the accuracy of equations in the laboratory, one of the best equipped in the area.



General Science Intrigues Freshmen

Shirley Easterday, Johnnie Lou Keith, Carol Dalton, and Glenda Carpenter are looking in a balanced aquarium. General science students study plant and animal life, atomic energy, and planet origin. Touching on these phases develops interest in a particular field of science, such as biology, physics, or chemistry.

Library Motivates Research



The library is a popular place for East High students, especially during exam or term paper time. Providing books specified as reference and pleasure, all students are able to satisfy their whims. With continual additions this section of the school is kept abreast of the times.

Bible Builds Character

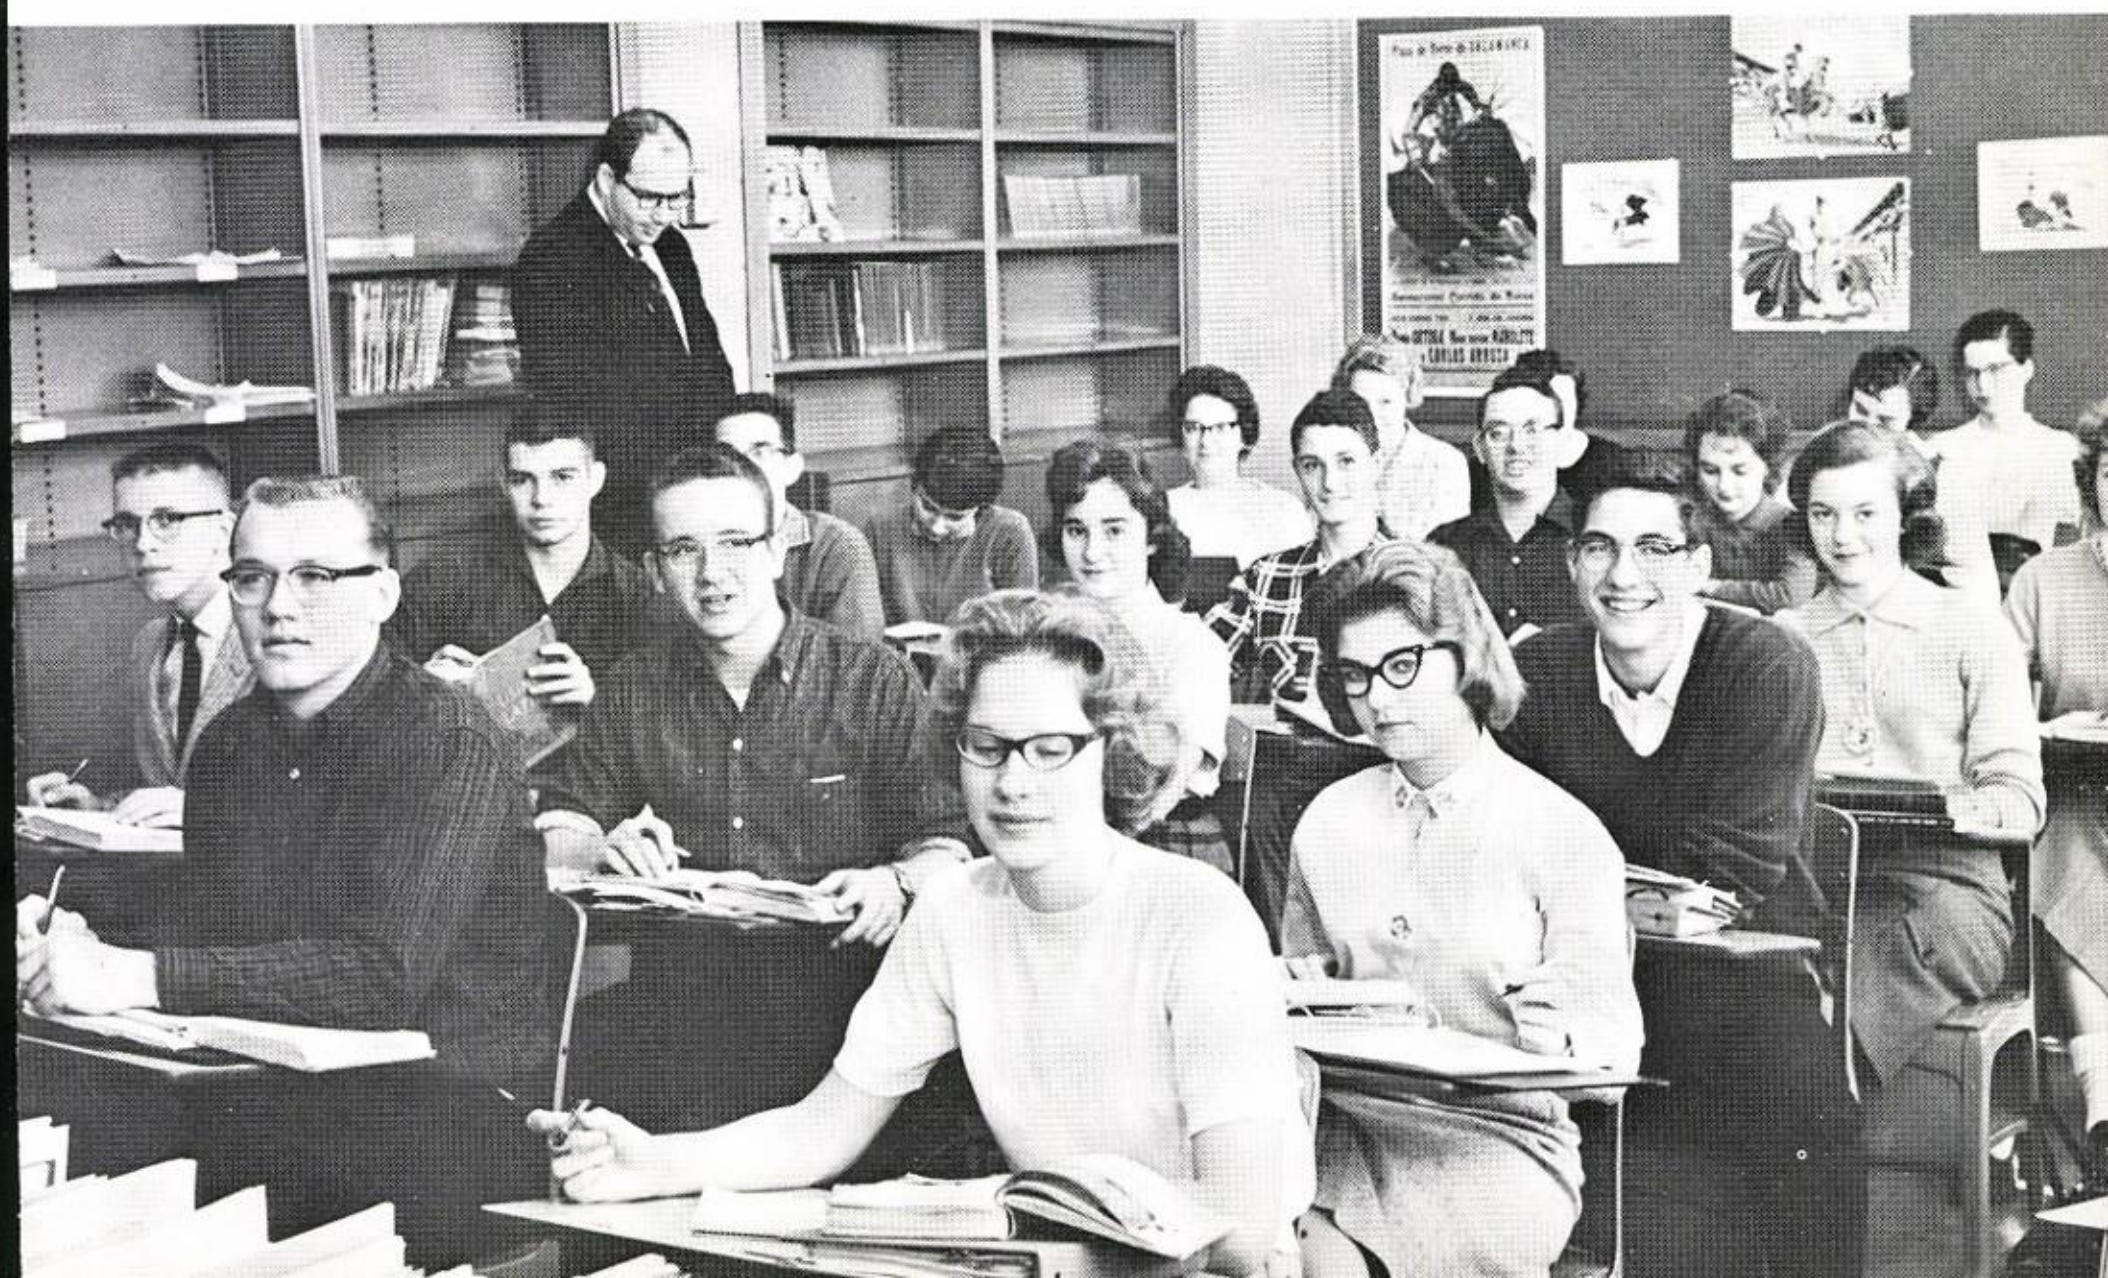
Advanced Bible students are progressing rapidly under the excellent instruction of Mrs. Virginia Wood, a newcomer to East. History is predominantly studied in connection to the Old Testament, and spiritual truths applicable to everyday living are stressed through the New Testament. Members of the class are Rosie Webster, Wanda Leamon, David Emmett (standing), Leo Browning, James Willoughby, and Ray Qualls.

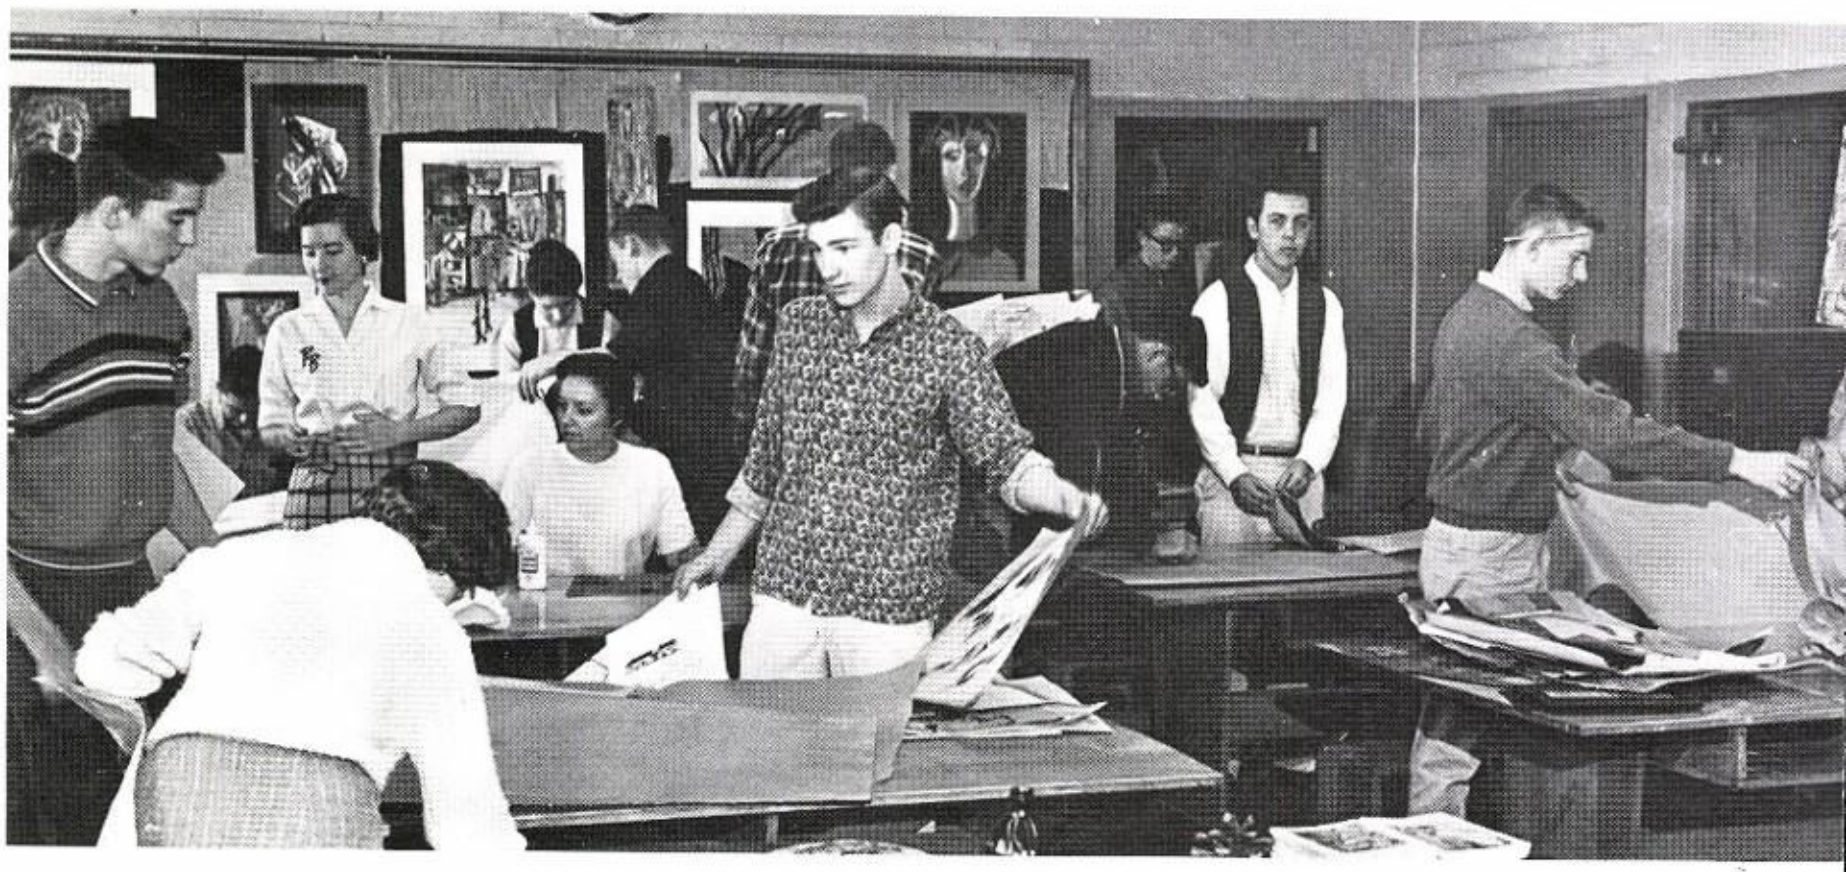
Novels Supplement Literature

Book covers from popular novels have attracted the eyes of this group of students from Mrs. Evelyn Seale's sophomore English classes. Looking at the display are Tom Atchley, Bobby Keith, Dianna Turley, Nancy Regan, and Phyllis McDaniel. Highlights of this required course include studies of Silas Marner and Julius Caesar.

Latin Upholds Ancient Tradition

Mr. Fugate's second year Latin students work diligently in translating an excerpt from Caesar's Gallic Wars. Studying this language widens one's vocabulary and simplifies English grammar and sentence structure, while also teaching history, customs, and traditions of the early Roman people.



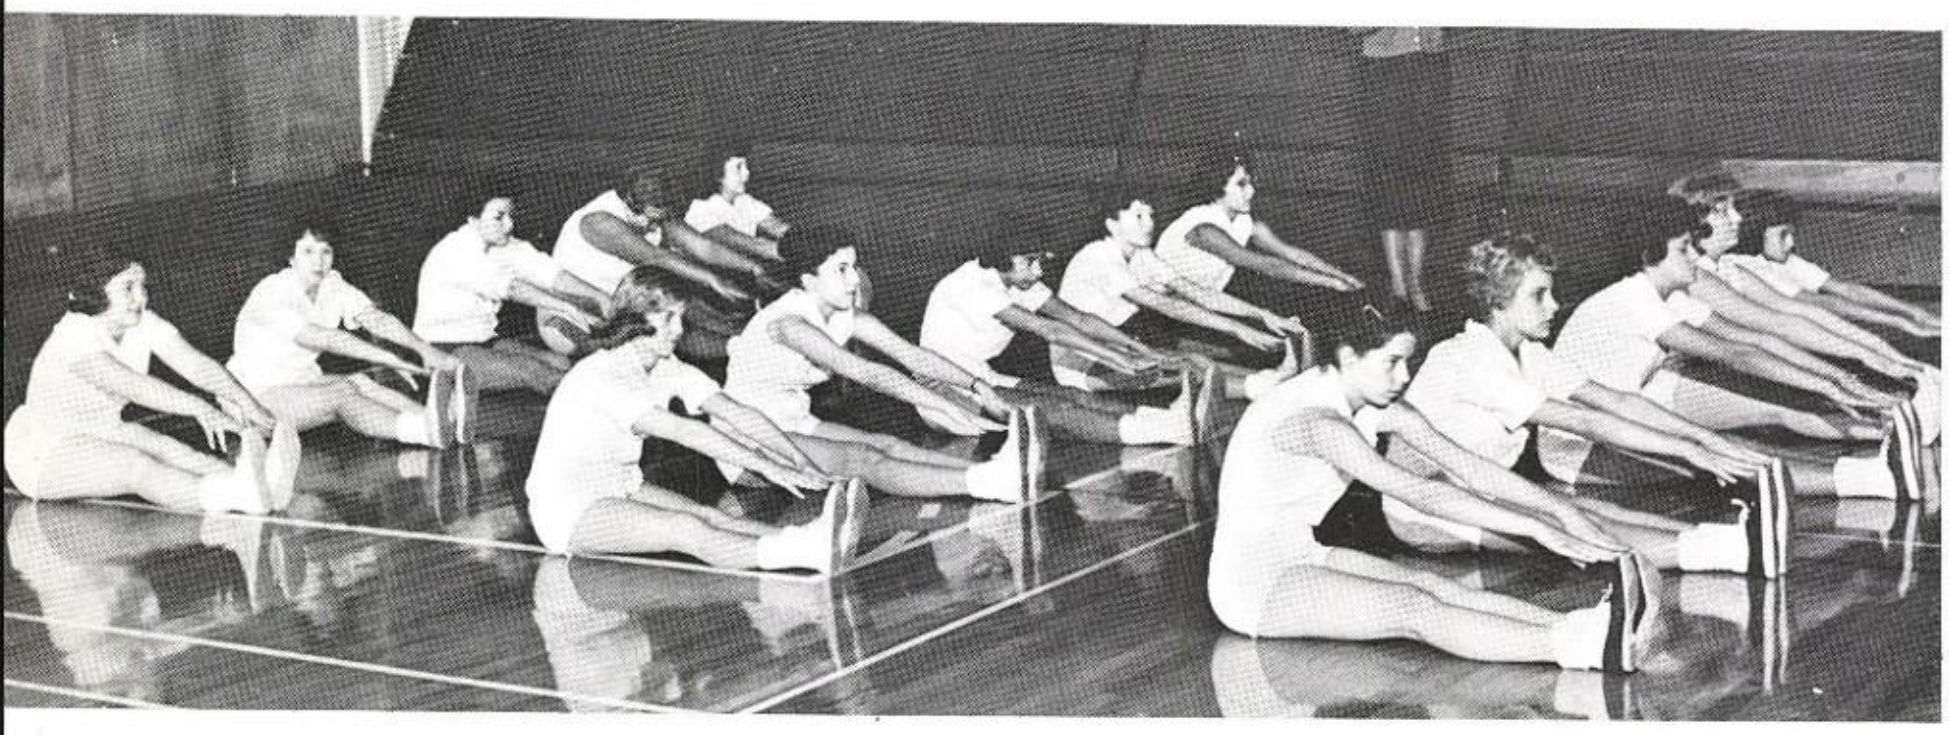


Art Develops Culture

In Mrs. Patti Blackett's art classes students are encouraged to express their emotions through creative design. Many of their works are placed in the halls and cafeteria for the benefit and enjoyment of the entire school. During the second semester they add ceramics to their list of art activities.

Girls Acquire Physical Fitness

Girls' physical education offers a varied program to keep them in good physical condition. In addition to daily exercise the girls participate in softball, tumbling, volleyball, bowling, basketball, tennis, and golf. This varied program builds toward a well-rounded person in the area of sports.



Ruth Whaley, Elizabeth Blalock, Donna Capps, and Theresa Gossett are busy preparing a tasty dish by a time-tested recipe. With modern facilities and conveniences Miss Guerrant Tatem prepares home economics students for their future occupation or housewives, or for the basic steps in becoming a demonstrator, decorator, or consultant.

Home Economics Prepares Homemakers

Typists Master Skills

Miss Jean Naberhuis' first year typing class is taking a timed writing. In Typing I techniques, speed and accuracy are stressed. Secretaries, office workers, and college students find their instruction an invaluable asset.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Evelyn Seale, the National Honor Society has exemplified its qualifications for membership; scholarship, leadership, service, and character. As a service organization, the Society has prepared a bulletin board every two weeks, arranged the hall case after each six-weeks' grading period, gave a tea honoring students that made semester honors and awards two $75 scholarships to a senior boy and girl.

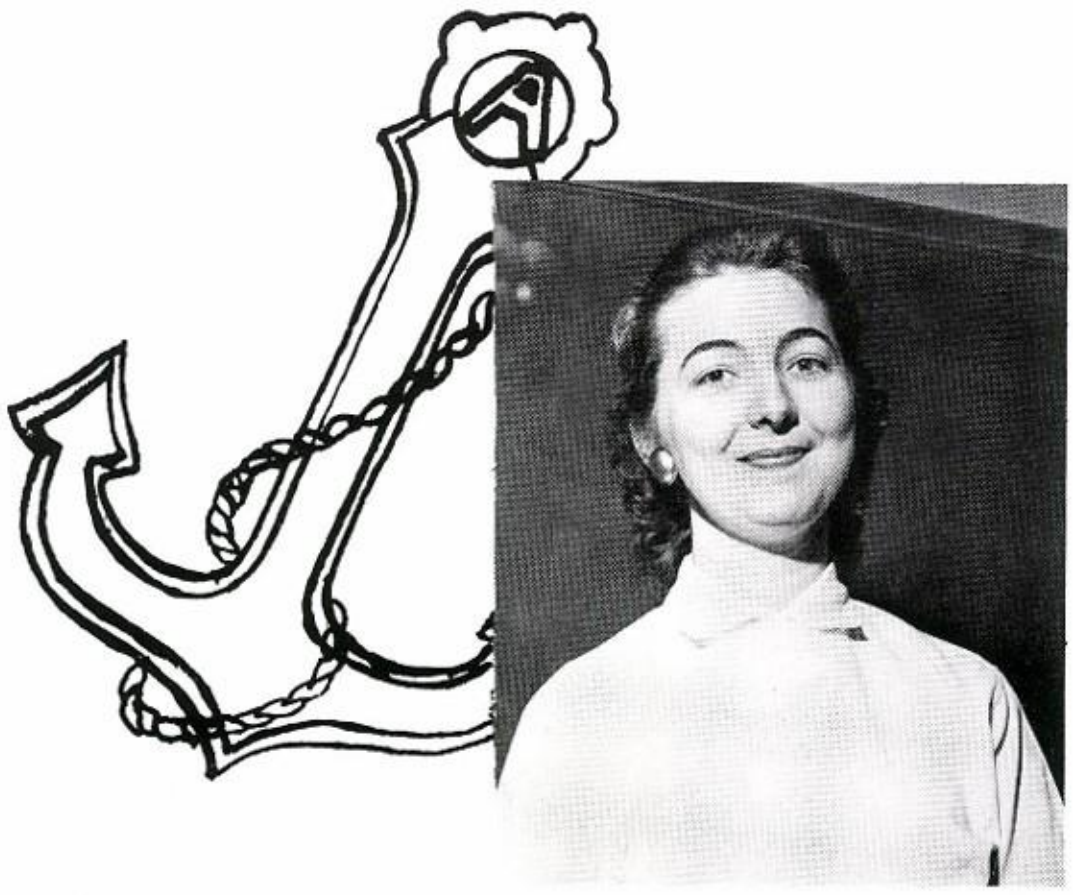
Anchor Club



Mrs. Ann Allred, the new sponsor of the Anchor Club, has won the admiration and respect of all members. Through her dynamic leadership the club has advanced rapidly.

Outstanding as officers in the Anchor Club for 1960-61 are Sara Barnard, Linda Lawson, Beverly McGee, Paula McKamey, Janie Ragsdale, Mary Frances Wise, Diane Simms.

Serving the school and the community, these Anchor Club members have devoted many untiring hours to various worthwhile projects and activities. Their main objective will be to purchase a new hi-fidelity set for the school. Here we see several members hanging draperies in the cafeteria, another Anchor Club project.

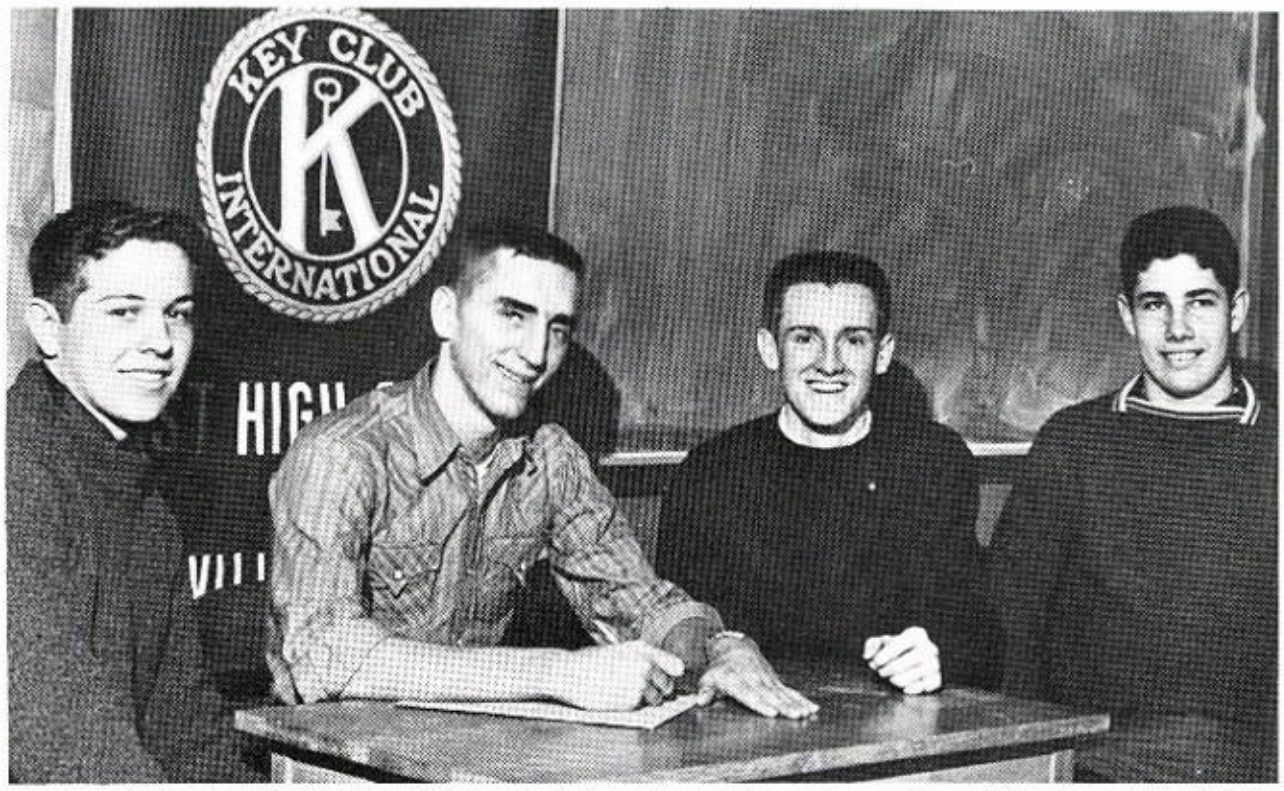
One of the most amusing events at East this year was the memorable Powder-Puff football game. Although the opposing team, the Pep Club, won a decisive victory, the girls enjoyed the practice sessions and amazed themselves with their newly acquired knowledge of football.

The Key Club, sponsored by the East Knoxville Kiwanis Club, is a service organization composed of selected boys. Membership is acquired by maintaining leadership and responsibility in school functions. These members have worked incessantly to accomplish and fulfill the goal of their club. Seated: Johnny Webber, Ray Merritt, Lynn Brewer, Norman Busch, Ted Shelton, Jimmy Moore, Tommy Mitchell, Wilda Greene, Jerrell Killian, Royce Cates. Standing: Ted Lane, David Fry, Phil Sharp, Tommy Gilman, Ronnie Duncan, George Courtney, Don Manley, Darris Doyal.

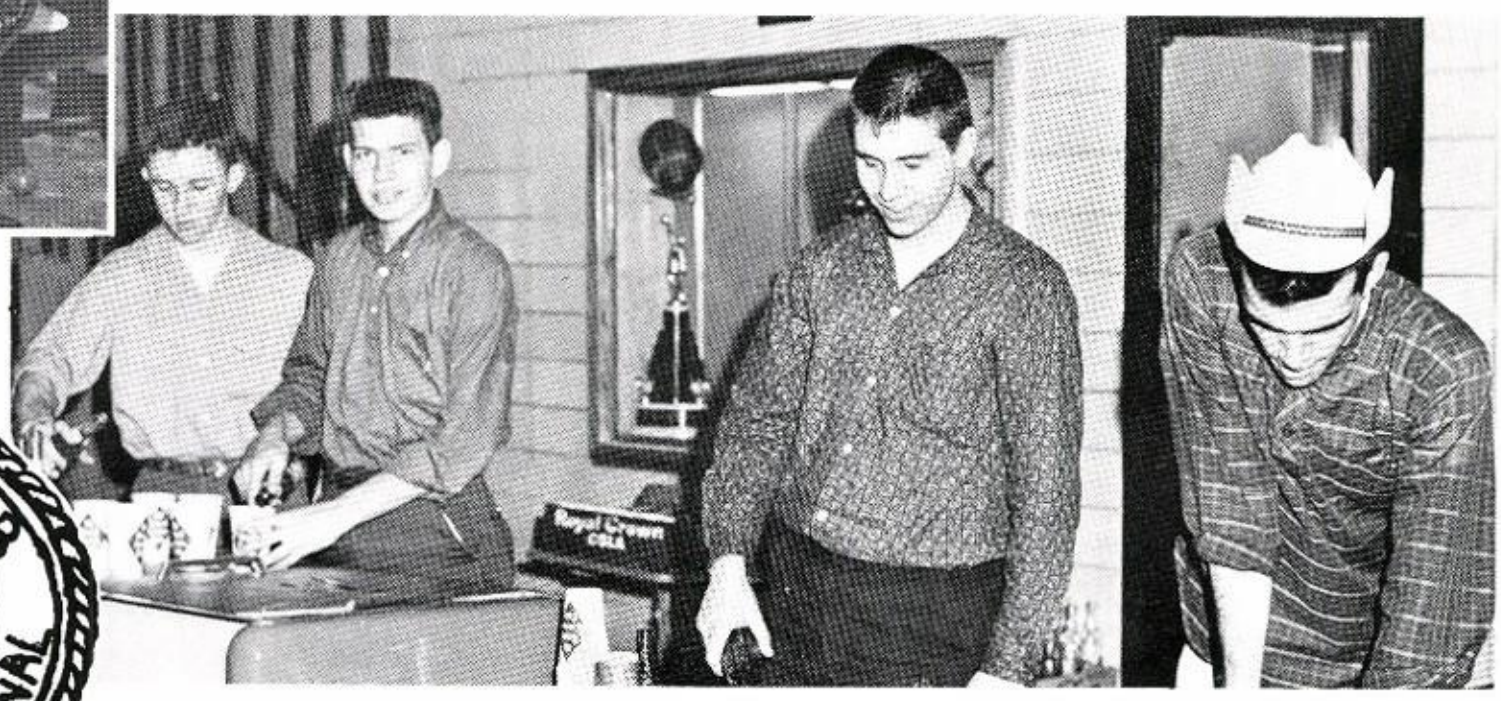
Mr. Buford Bible, veteran sponsor of the Key Club, directs the members in service projects of the club as well as social functions. His understanding attitude toward young people make him highly respected and admired by them.

Carol Shamblin is the Key Club Sweetheart for 1960-61. Her main duties are to help plan the social events, to keep a scrapbook of the club's activities, and to participate in all projects that Key Club undertakes during the year.

Key Club Fullfills Goals



Key Club officers for 1960-61 have worked diligently completing plans for a successful year. Left to right: Darris Doyal, Treasurer; David Fry, President; Mickey Shelton, Vice-President; Tommy Gilman, Secretary.



One of the Key Club's responsibilities is operating a coke counter at home basketball games. Concessions, such as cokes and popcorn, are sold and the profit obtained is used for various projects.

The junior members of the Key Club lend their support to all projects undertaken for the school and community. Their main project this year has been the purchasing of new stage curtains for the auditorium.

Charlene Lanier, Editor, is proudly reading the first edition of the 1960-61 BLUE and GRAY. Guided by her knowledge of journalism, ingenuity, and efficiency, the staff has published an excellent paper this year.

They are capable and efficient workers, helping the entire staff meet its deadline each month. Left to right: Lorry Ruth, Gail Mynatt, Butch Quillen, Linda Waller, Ronnie Goodlin, Marcia Peters, Faye Mellon, and Wanda Warren.

The circulation staff—Mary Lou Smith, Shirley Yount, Becky Driver, and Bennie Stevens, cheerfully await home group representatives who will pick up their papers for distribution. These girls are always ready to perform their duty.

Sue French, Jimmy Moore, Brenda Hutchison, and John Browning are in the parking lot, ready to go solicit advertisements from Knoxville business firms. Financing a newspaper is not an easy job; but with the constant work of the business staff, all obligations are met.

Bank Manages

BANKERS

Shirley Yount, vice-president, and Patsy Hill, president, are adding figures from the ledger on the new Monro-Matic calculator. The dependability and accuracy of these two girls keep the bank working efficiently.

BANK AUDITOR

Mr. William M. Campbell, bank auditor, is busy signing vouchers, which must be written for every check. His efficiency and vast knowledge of bookkeeping principles make him an indispensable asset to the bank. If anything goes wrong, he is always able to give his assistance in finding the error.

RECORDING JOURNAL ENTRIES

Mary Ann Snoderly and Judy Moneymaker agree that it is easier for two to record entries in the journal. As Mary Ann calls items from the receipt book, Judy writes the information in the journal.

School Funds

WRITING A RECEIPT

While Judy Byrd writes a receipt, Patsy Tyler counts the money. This is the major activity of the bank viewed by all students. But this is only the beginning step of many records kept for accuracy in obtaining account balances.

CHECKS MUST BE WRITTEN

From the information on a voucher Jo Ann Witt writes a check and Brenda Bennett stamps the amount on another one. Through the use of this machine any tampering or changing of the original figures is prevented.

DEPOSIT READY FOR BANK

Each day during the fifth period, Peggy Stout and Jo Ann Stuffle faithfully prepare the deposit ticket, sort and bag the money, and take it to Mr. Bible, Assistant Principal. He later takes it to the Park National Bank where it is deposited in the East High School account.

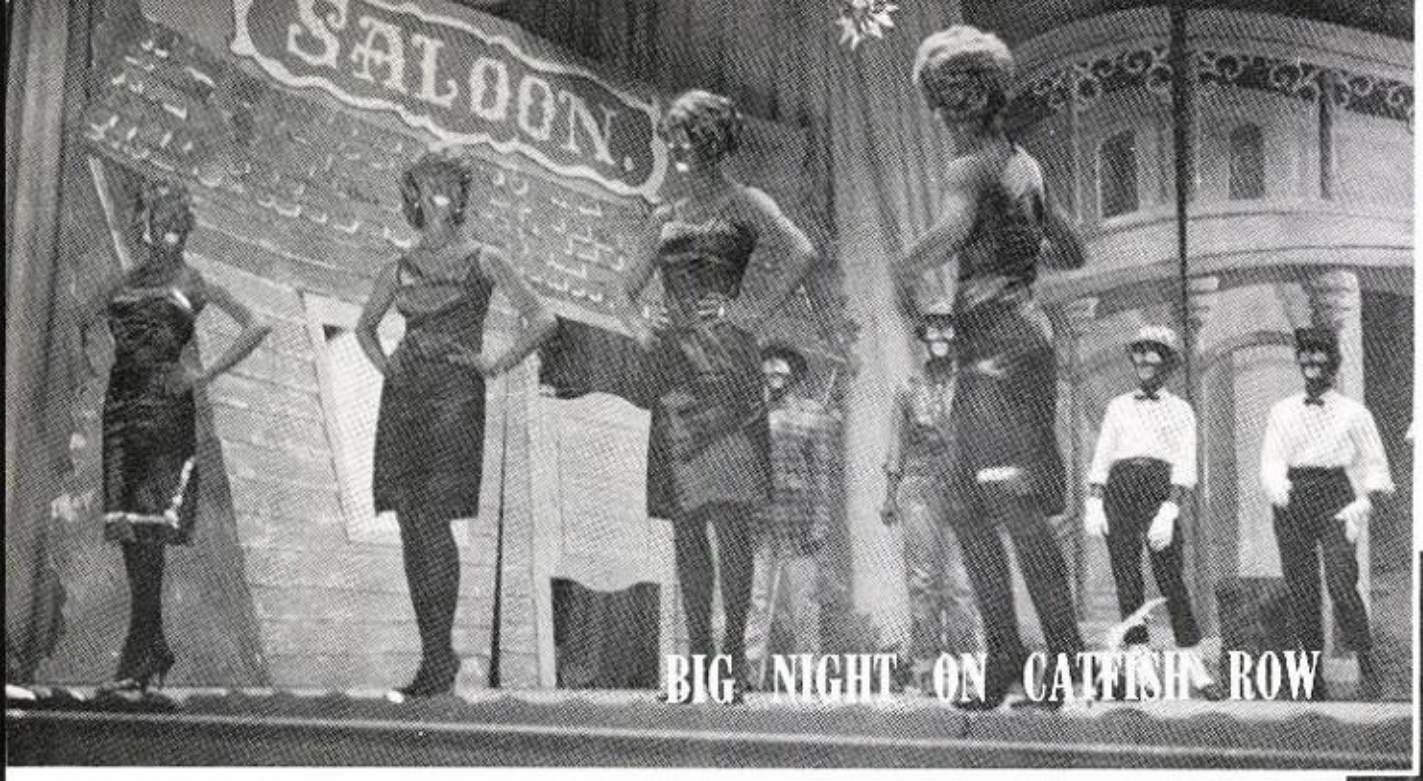
Fabulous



"Big Night on Catfish Row" featured a take-off on the Broadway production of Porgy and Bess. The arrival of a steamboat, which was equipped with four show girls and "Slick Jim," excited the men of the town but it infuriated their jealous women, especially Bess. In the scene that followed, Bess goes off with Slick Jim and Porgy with the show girls. However, they are reconciled when "Big Bertha," who is actually Slick Jim's wife, appears on stage and forces her woe-beguiled husband to take refuge by jumping into the river. The gigantic steamboat and saloon backdrop created a special effect on the audience, as it portrayed the mood for the skits.

Bertha Walker, president of the National Thespians, presented Miss Ruby Bird with a gift of appreciation for her direction of the 1960-61 Follies. Miss Bird is especially to be commended for her hard work and proficient supervision of such a successful performance.

GREEN BEAN HOLLER

The Green-Bean Holler girls added a bit of humor to the Follies with their imitation of a country radio station, appropriately called SNUF. Talent was presented by Educated Elvira, Effie Lou Hoehandle and the Bean Holler Gals and Minney Rinestone, while Predicate Nominative and Homer Shagnasty acted as master of ceremonies. The special event was the crowning of a Milk Queen. A fight among all cast members brought the skit to its conclusion.

Follies Create Sensation

SAYONARA

One of the most appreciated acts in the Follies was the "country singing" of David Fry and Edd Poore. Through mellow harmony their dry wit was projected through song and guitar.

The winning skit in the Follies was a novel version of the Japanese fantasy, Sayonara. The daughter of Confucius was unmarried because of her ugly face, so her father summoned the leaders of the world to appraise her. Sayonara, in much despair, decided to commit "hari-kari." A near-sighted Japanese man, Harry-Cary, popped in upon hearing his name and snowed Sayonara because he was an "Aqua Velva man."

FRANKIE AND JOHNNY

The story of Frankie and Johnny was told in song and dance. Jay Nelson and Dottie Richards portrayed the characters of Frankie and Johnnie, respectively, with Sherry Wright as Nelly Bly and Wilda Greene as sheriff. The chorus line was most effective in portraying in various rhythms and tempos the changing mood of the story. Members of the skit are Masquers.

DAR AWARD WINNER

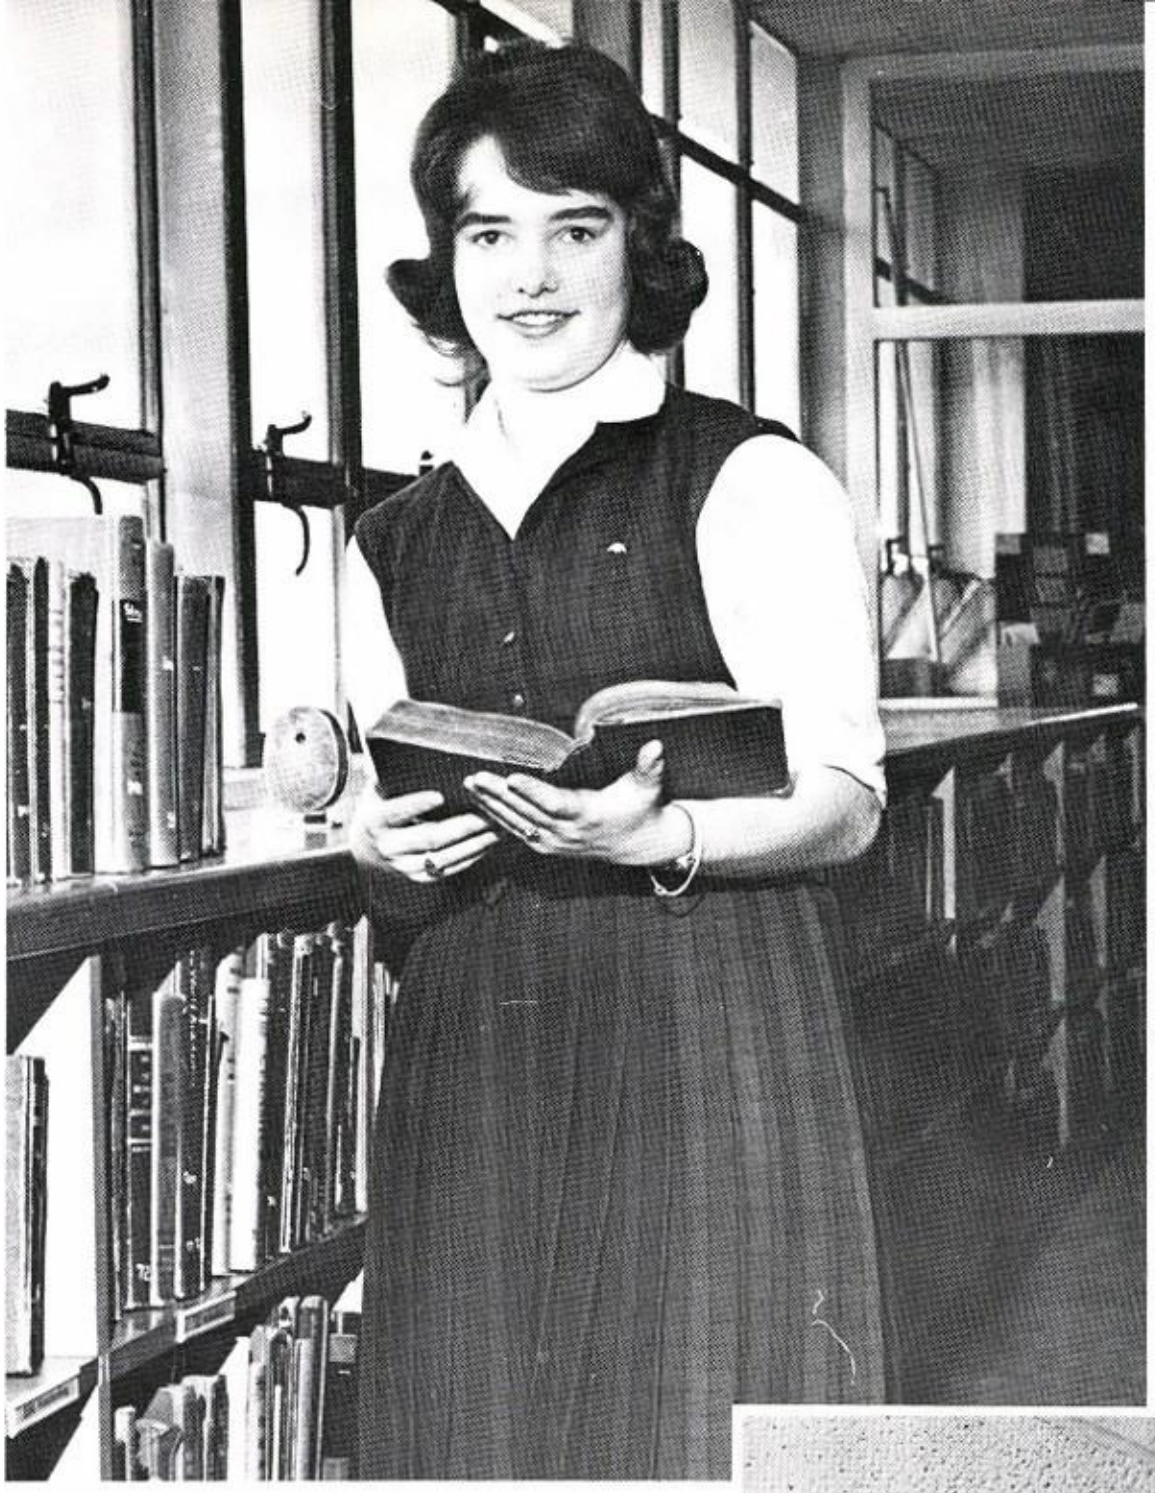
The winners of the Daughters of the American Revolution Citizenship Award is Shirley Yount. As recipient of this award, she receives a Good Citizen's pin and Certificate of Award from the local James White Chapter, and a chance for the $50 scholarship award.

Shirley was selected for this honor because of her efficiency and competency which is reflected in her studies and extra-curricular activities. Her activities include Business Manager of the BEACON, Vice-President of the bank, BLUE and GRAY staff, Honor Society, and F.T.A.

BOYS' STATE

GIRLS' STATE

Paula McKamey and Darris Doyal represented East High at Girls' State and Boys' State. In a special chapel program in the fall they related their experiences, educational as well as amusing. The principal functions of city, county, and state government were learned by electing individuals to various offices or positions. They both made new friends and consider attending Girls' and Boys' State an experience they will never forget.



KAROLA ILISCH, EXCHANGE STUDENT

Karola Ilisch, coming from Berlin, Germany, is the first exchange student in the history of East High School. Kay, as she was christened by the Shamblins, her American family, began her visit to the United States by applying for a scholarship given by the American Field Service. She was one of twenty-three German students who were chosen to receive the AFS scholarships. Although she tells us that her school is very different from ours, through her adaptability and friendly personality she won the friendship of all East High. East High feels very fortunate in having Kay and for enlarging its understanding of international friendship.

MOST REPRESENTATIVE BOY AND GIRL

Knoxville paid tribute to its youth in the annual Youth Appreciation Week sponsored by the Optimist Club. Sue Webster and David Fry were elected by the student body to represent East High School as the Most Representative Boy and Girl. Both are honor students and also engage in school activities. Sue is an active member of Anchor Club, and David is president of Key Club.

Unique Performance

Getting into the spirit of the season, such songs as "Carol of the Drum" and "O Magnum Mysterium" entertained the audience with their unique presentation. Rebecca Weaver, the accompanist, is also due recognition for her superb performance. First row: Edd Poore, David Fry, Bobby Chitwood, Bobby Hillard, Ben Snyder, Charles Patterson, Rodney Woods, Jimmy Young, David Moore, Jimmy Henard, Joe Mac Caldwell, Jimmy Sievers, Wilda Greene, Darris Doyal, Ted Shelton, Royce Cates. Second row: Ginger Stewart, Beverly McGee, Dodie Fleenor, Linda Wolfe, Judy Blalock, Wilma Thomas, Bertha Walker, Julie Shelton, Nancy Snoderly, Martha Sanders, Edna Jones, Dianna Turley, Darlene Waldrop, Joyce Lee, Kay Ilisch, Sandra Williford, Judy Nelson, Kathryn Black, Virginia Countess, Glenna Sorah, Judy Duck.

ALL-CITY CHOIR

East High is very proud of its student representation in the All-City Choir. Special musical ability is required for this honor since their talents are combined with voices from other schools. Successful performances have stemmed from this group under the direction of Mr. Gerald Ballard. Left to right: Carol Shamblin, Ted Shelton, Judy Blalock, Barbara Gerkin, Jimmy Young, Rebecca Weaver, Mrs. Okey at piano, Wanda Leamon, Darris Doyal, Judy Duck, John Carner, Jane Ragsdale, Jim Carner, Kathy Grubb, Royce Cates.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

BOYS' ENSEMBLE

The Madrigals are a select group of vocalists who are always in demand for special occasions. Both talent and practice are essential to perform so well without accompaniment, since this early secular music is difficult to sing. Left to right: Royce Cates, Janie Ragsdale, Ted Shelton, Kathy Grubb, Barbara Gerkin, Judy Blalock, Mary Frances Wise, Jim Carner, Theresa Gossett, Jimmy Young.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The band marches in various parades throughout the year. Linda Lawson, head color-guard; Royce Cates, drum major; and Betty Jane May, band sponsor; add color to the appearance of the band. They and the musicians have worked hard to make a good showing for the band.

School Spirit

In addition to marching, the band has a concert season. Mr. Fred DeRobertis does a marvelous job in directing the performances. Through his conscientious work and cooperation of the band members, the band has had a successful year.

BAND OFFICERS

An essential group of band members are the officers. This group does a large amount of planning and selecting, such as arrangements for transporting the entire band to a performance other than ones at the school. Left to right: Don Manley, Captain; Paula McKamey, Sergeant; Charlene Lanier, First Lieutenant; Theresa Gossett, Social Chairman; and Royce Cates, Drum Major.

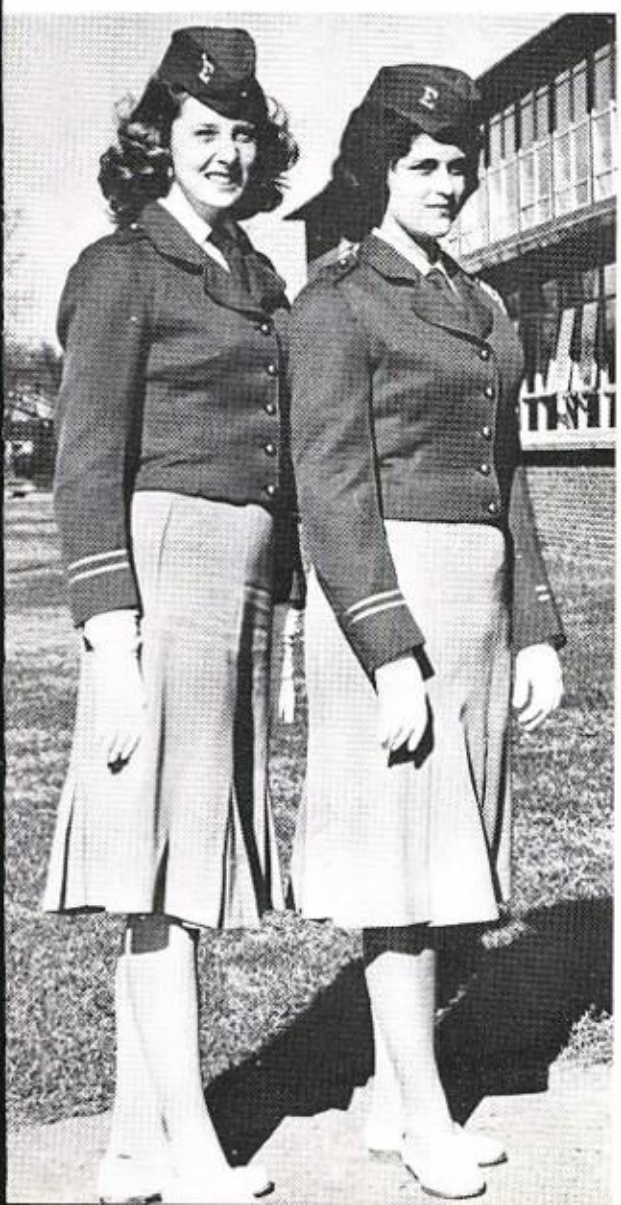
The band is very proud of its "Mountie Majorettes," Bertha Walker and Gail Mynatt. This is a part of the routine that occurred at the "Mountaineer" pep rally before the Holston game.

During halftime at the Optimist Bowl, the East High Band enacted the first Thanksgiving. A solo, "Come, Ye Thankful People Come," by Barbara Gerkin set the mood for the scene and brought much applause from the spectators.

HALFTIME CEREMONY

BAND QUEEN

Lovely Carolyn Marshall is the 1960 Band Queen. As an annual money raising project, the band sponsors the election of a band queen. One girl from each home room is selected to compete. The girls selected sell tickets to the spring concert. The one selling the most tickets is crowned as queen at the concert. Carolyn Marshall emerged as victor, and is certainly a credit to this honor.



Senior Color Guards Charlotte Jennings and Betty Bible, are pictured at the right. These girls carry the school flag and the American flag. At left are Priscilla McAmis and Sandra Hochenberg who are official gun bearers. Preceding the band this group strikes a note of dignity and pride in all that see them.

MR. MOUNTAINEER,

Charlie Crowe reigned as Mr. Mountaineer this year. In his typical mountaineer clothing, peeping over store-bought horn-rimmed glasses, Charlie proudly holds his "beautiful" weedy bouquet.

Darris Doyal, Charlie Crowe, Bill Ely, (back row) Phil Sharp, Lynn Hurst, Tommy Mitchell, and Buddy Turpin provided rough competition for the victor. Each candidate was presented in chapel in his glad rags so that the student body could judge the qualifications of each. Some even brought their pigs and donkeys along so they would not be lonesome.

First row: Don Sherrod, Tommy Cannon, Co-Captain; John Browning, David Jack, Mickey Shelton. Second row: Edd Poore, Eddie McElyea, David Fry, Co-Captain; Bill Black, Robert Holland, Butch Conover.

The Mounties, plagued by injuries throughout the year, nevertheless managed to finish with a fine record with victories over highly-regarded West, Bearden, and Central to highlight the season. Starting the season with five straight wins, our roundballers were at one time ranked fifteenth in the state.

With two of the highest scorers in the KIL (David Fry and Edd Poore) and an effective fast break offense, the team closed the season with a 10-13 record.

Responding vigorously to tournament play, the Mountaineers were contenders for the District 6 championship. After defeating Karnes, West, Bearden, and South, they clashed with Holston in double overtime. Sudden Death play rendered the runner-up trophy to us.

Region 2 play resumed with our roundballers downing Powell and Oakdale. Oak Ridge defeated East in the semi-finals of this regional tournament.

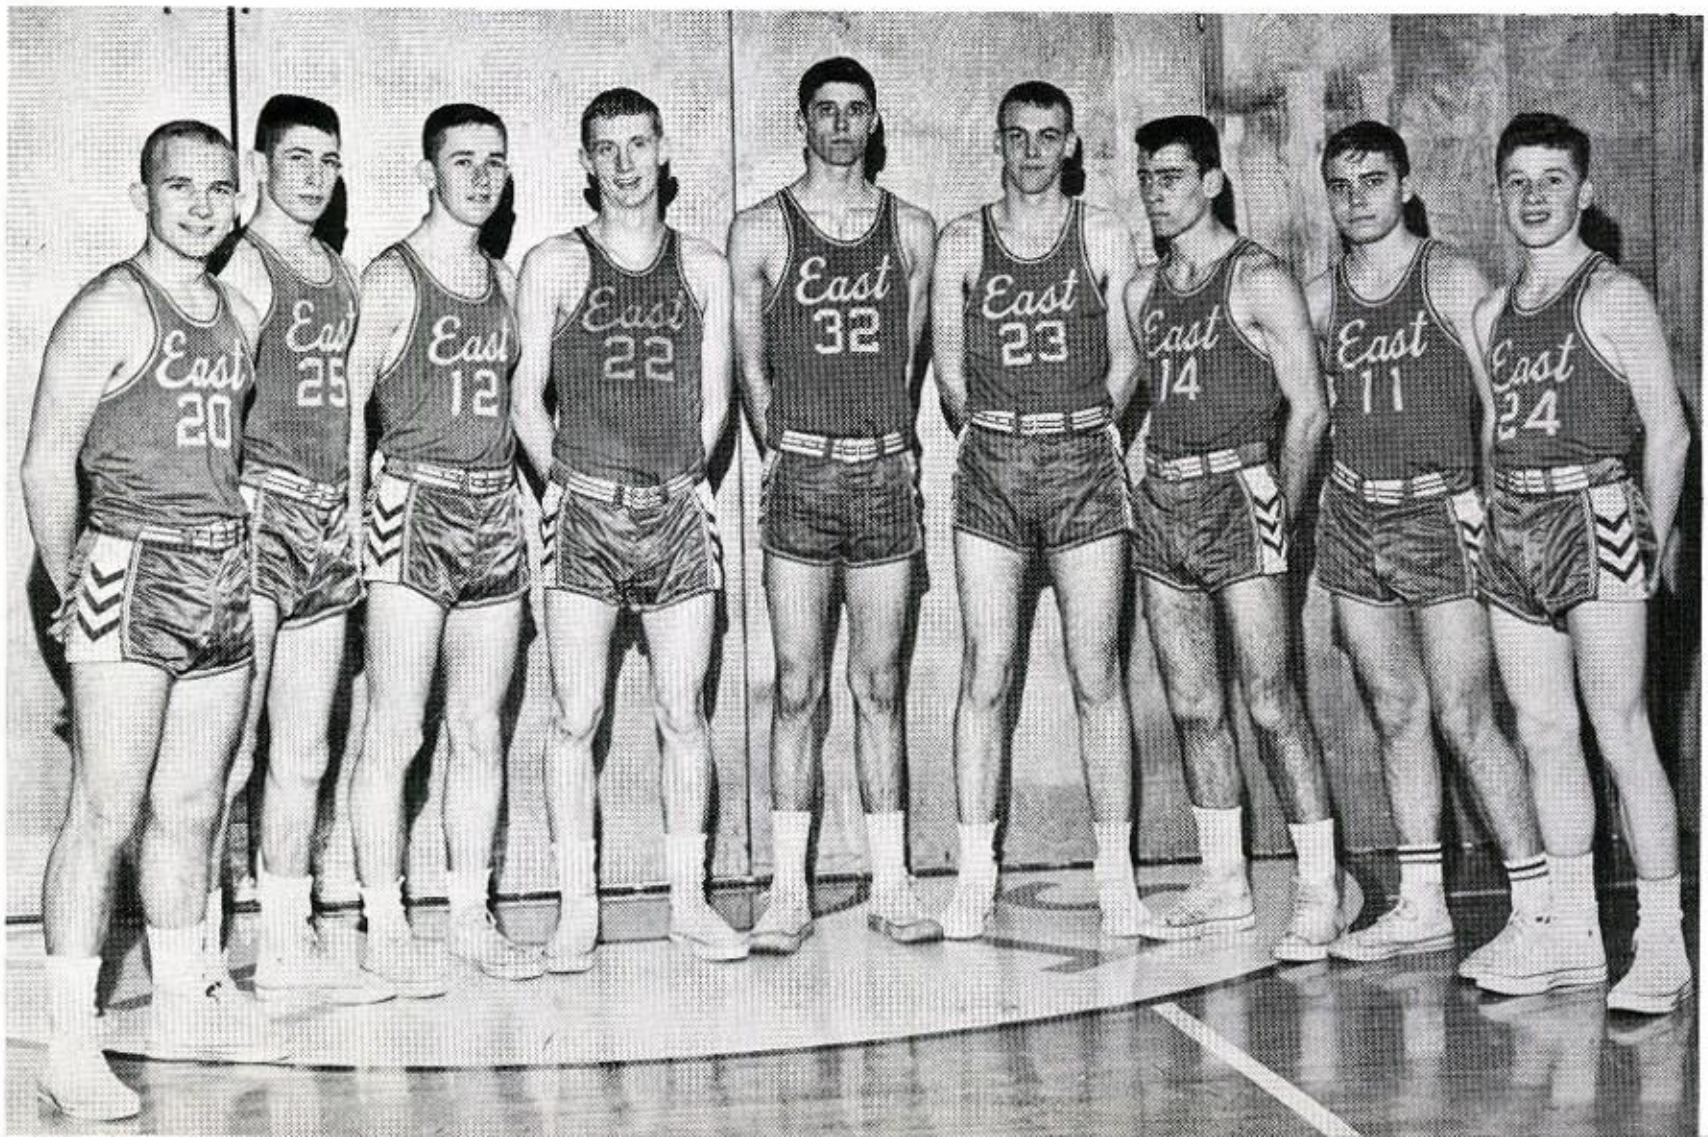
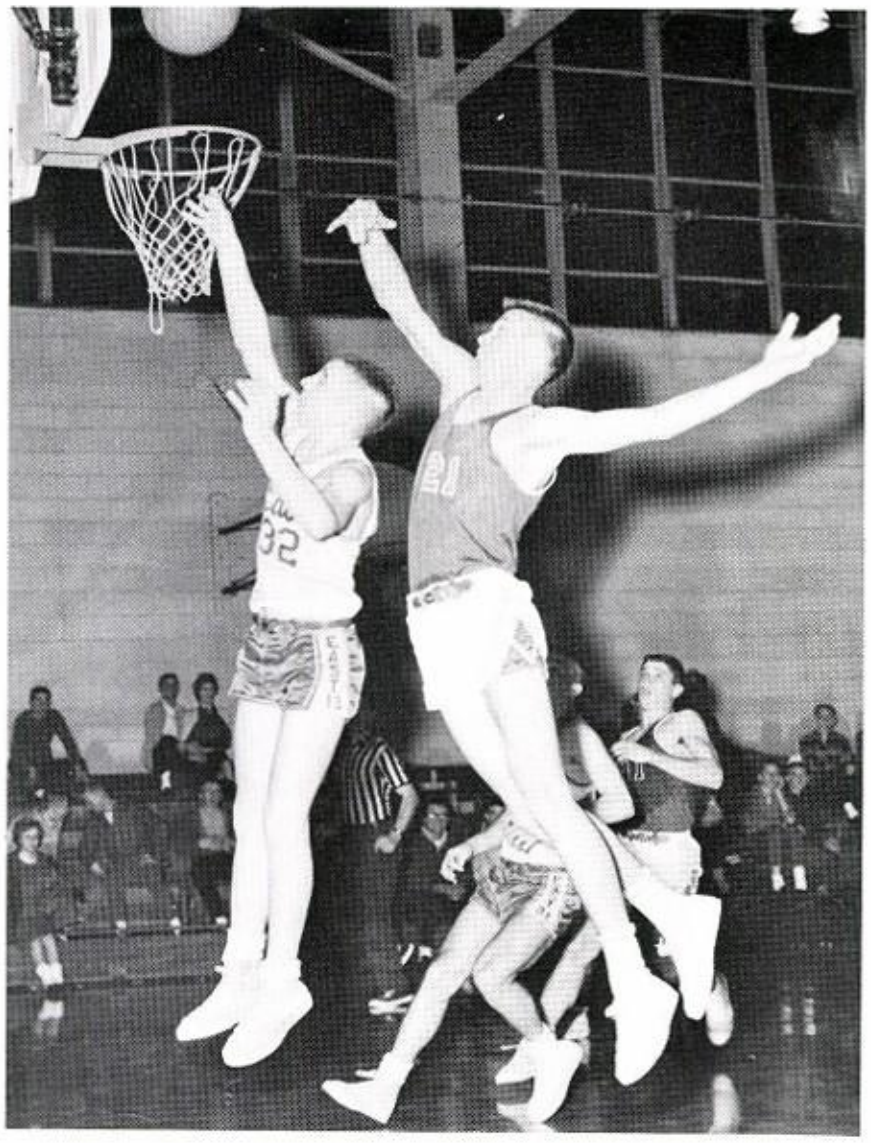
B-Squad Record Outstanding

The B-Squad boys closed a successful season with 16 victories and 8 losses. With hard work and constant effort these boys gained invaluable experience for future round-ball. Left to right: Tommy Kelly, Nick White, Norman Curtis, Albert McHan, Gerson Corkland, Don Jones, Duke Sharp, Jack Bonner, Clint Brewer.

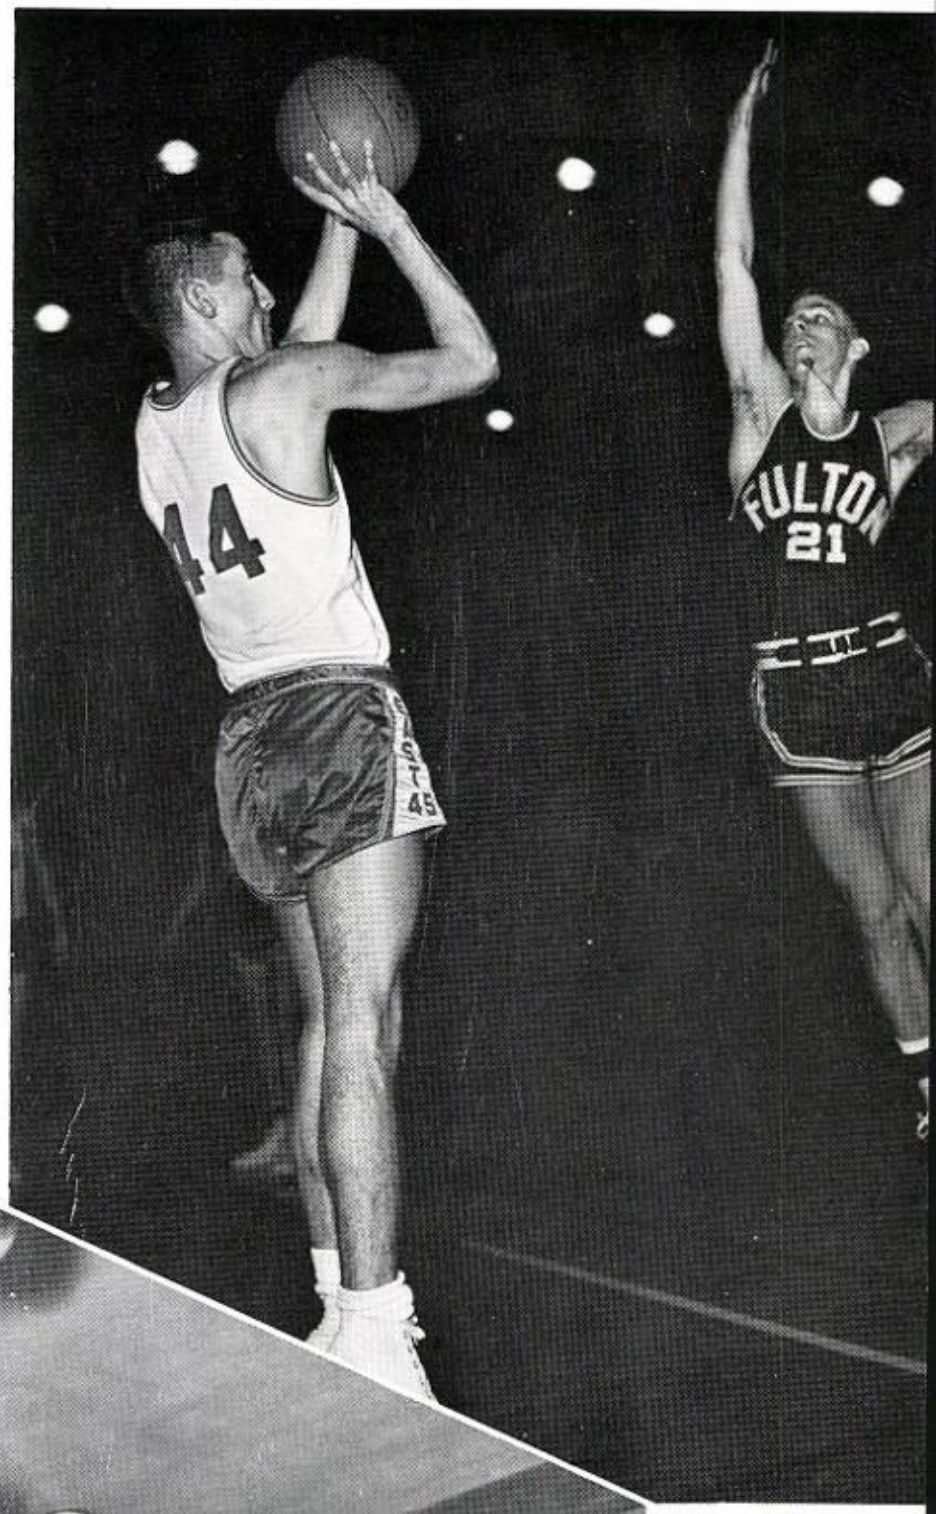


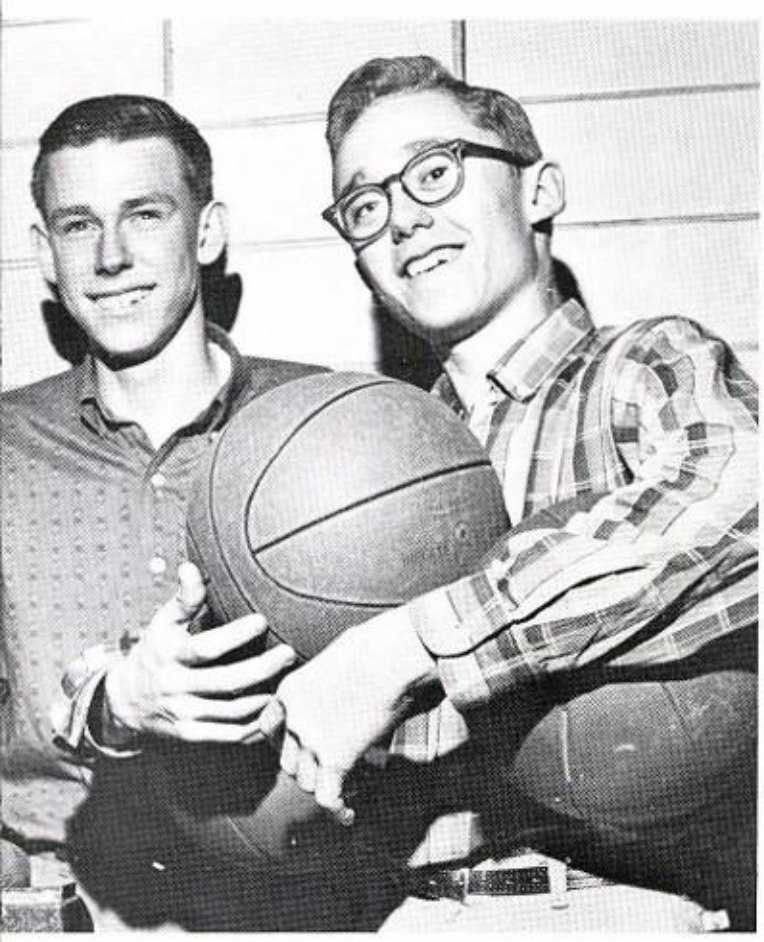
Roundballers In Action



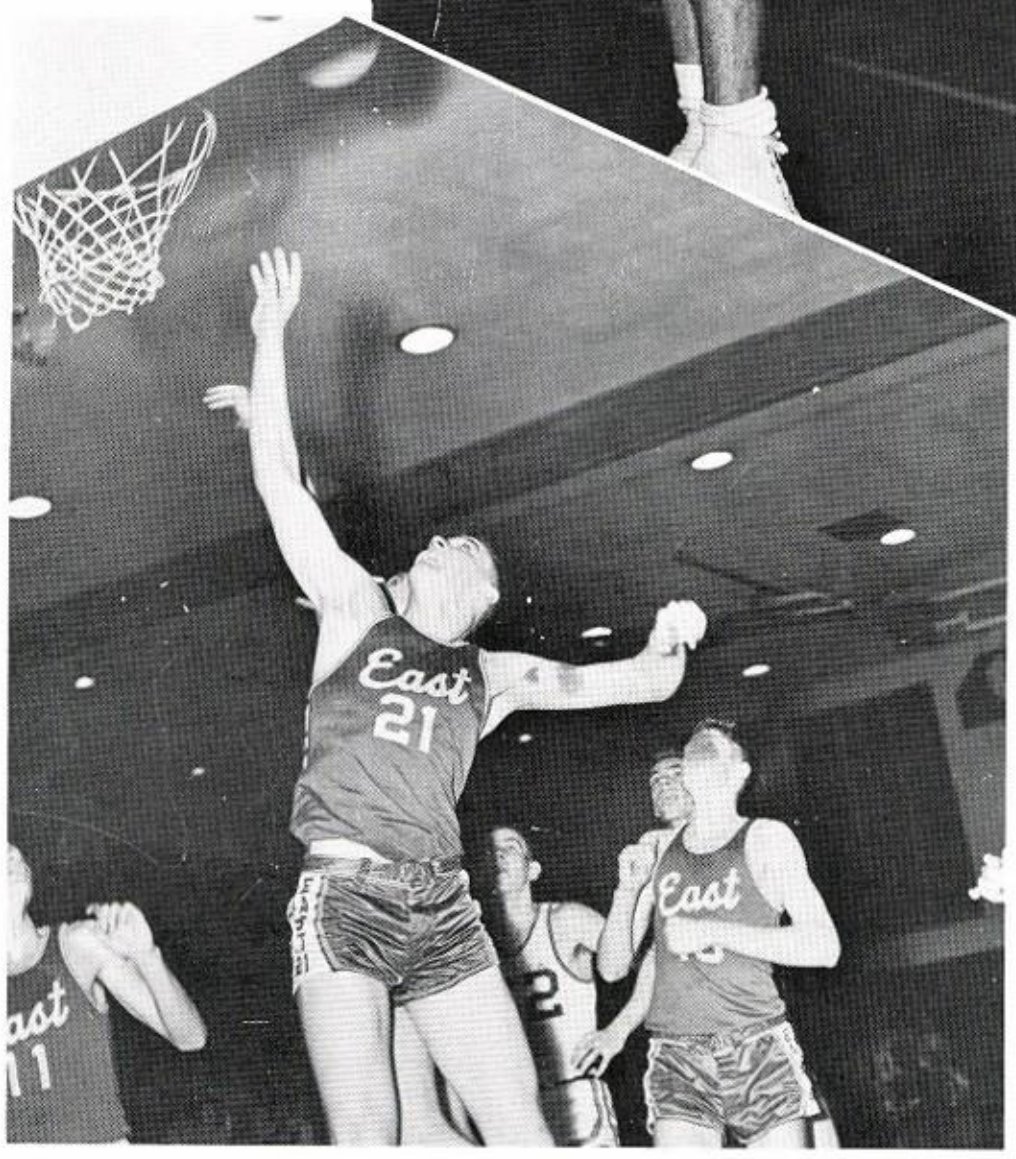
Tommy Cannon jumps to make a basket as he is unsuccessfully guarded. To prove brain outwits brawn, the ball sinks through the basket.

Biting the tongue to steady the arm, senior roundballer David Fry, aims carefully for points against opponent Fulton.





Rodney Woods and Don Pinkston have had a very active season keeping abreast of the team. Cleaning uniforms and sorting equipment are only two of their many jobs.



East surrounds the goal area and assures itself of a basket. East players are Eddie McElyea, Edd Poore, and Bill Black.

MILE RUNNER

Mickey Shelton distinguishes himself as placing second in every meet during the season. He also broke the school record by running the mile in 4:37.2.

Strengthen Team

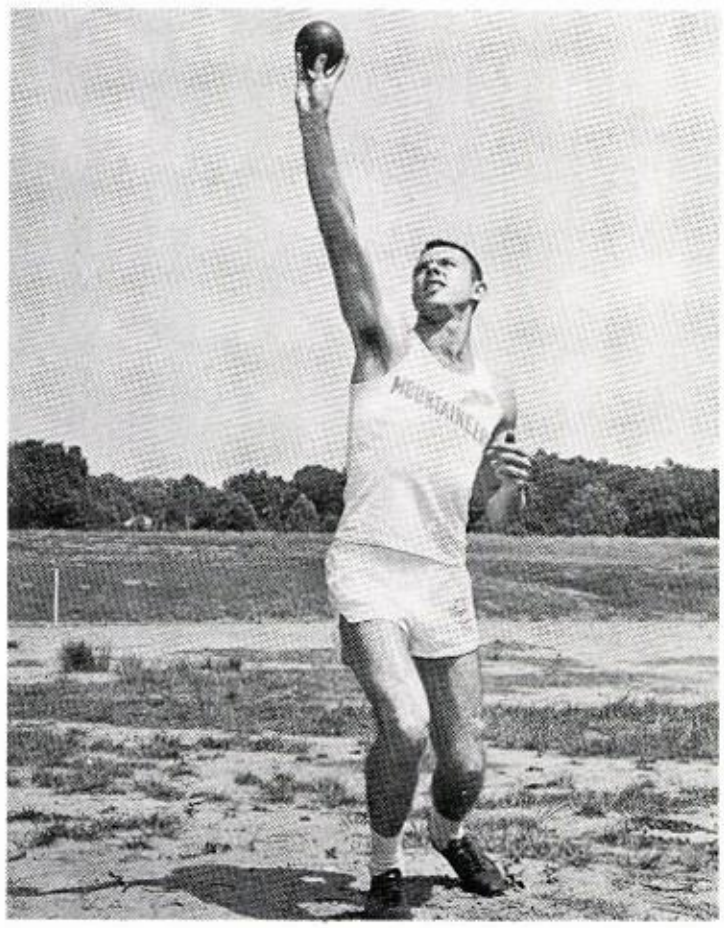
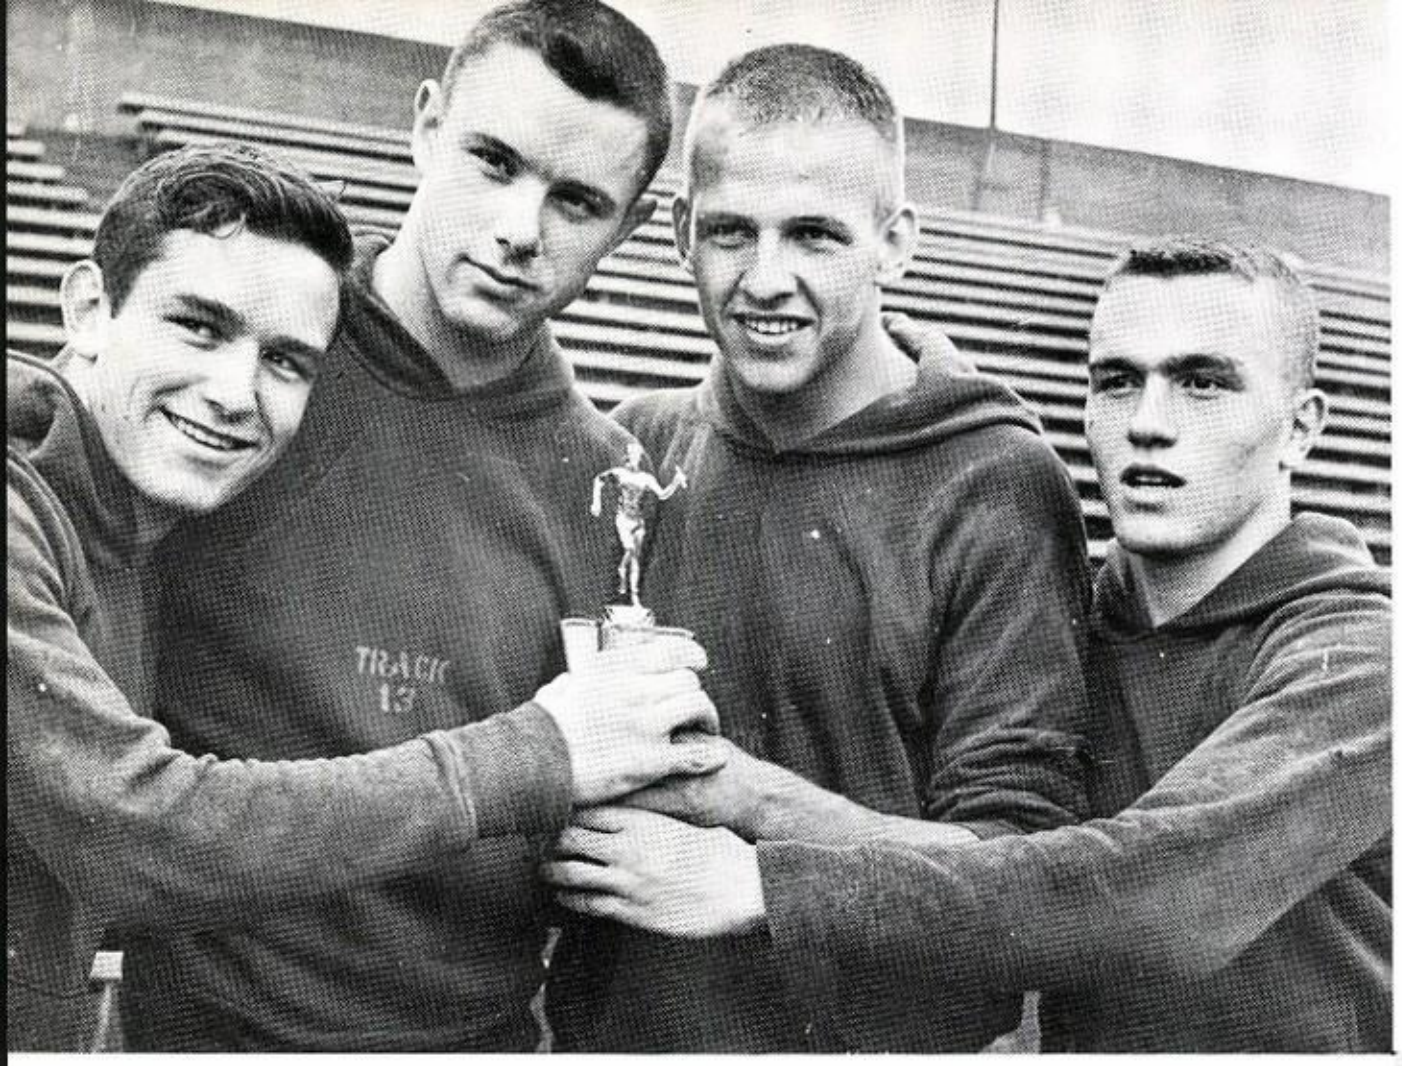
The newest addition to the East High School physical plant is the 440 oval track with a 220-yard straightaway. This track field contains a practice football field in the center.

The 1960 track team won three trophies and broke the following school records: 440-Relay, 47.2; 880-Relay, 1:36; Mile Relay, 3:34.7; 2-Mile Relay, 8:54.6; 440-Yard Run, 55.0; Mile Run, 4:37.2. Total points—146¼. They placed second in the District and received two first places in the relays.

With hard work and continuous patience, Mr. Robert LeSueur has produced outstanding individuals and has coached a winning team in the spring sport at East.

Bo Minnis, the high point man in nearly every track meet, has brought much acclaim to East High School. Bo finished in third place in the State Decathlon with 6512 points.





RECORD WRECKERS

East's 440-yard relay team bettered the District 2 record with a 46.9 performance. Displaying the championship trophy are Danny Smith, Bo Minnis, Bob Beard, and Ramzy Roback. This team won the 880-yard relay the same day.

DRY (?) RUN

Mr. Buford Bible shelters Mountaineer Alvin Edwards as he is ready to start in the 2-mile relay of District 2 action.

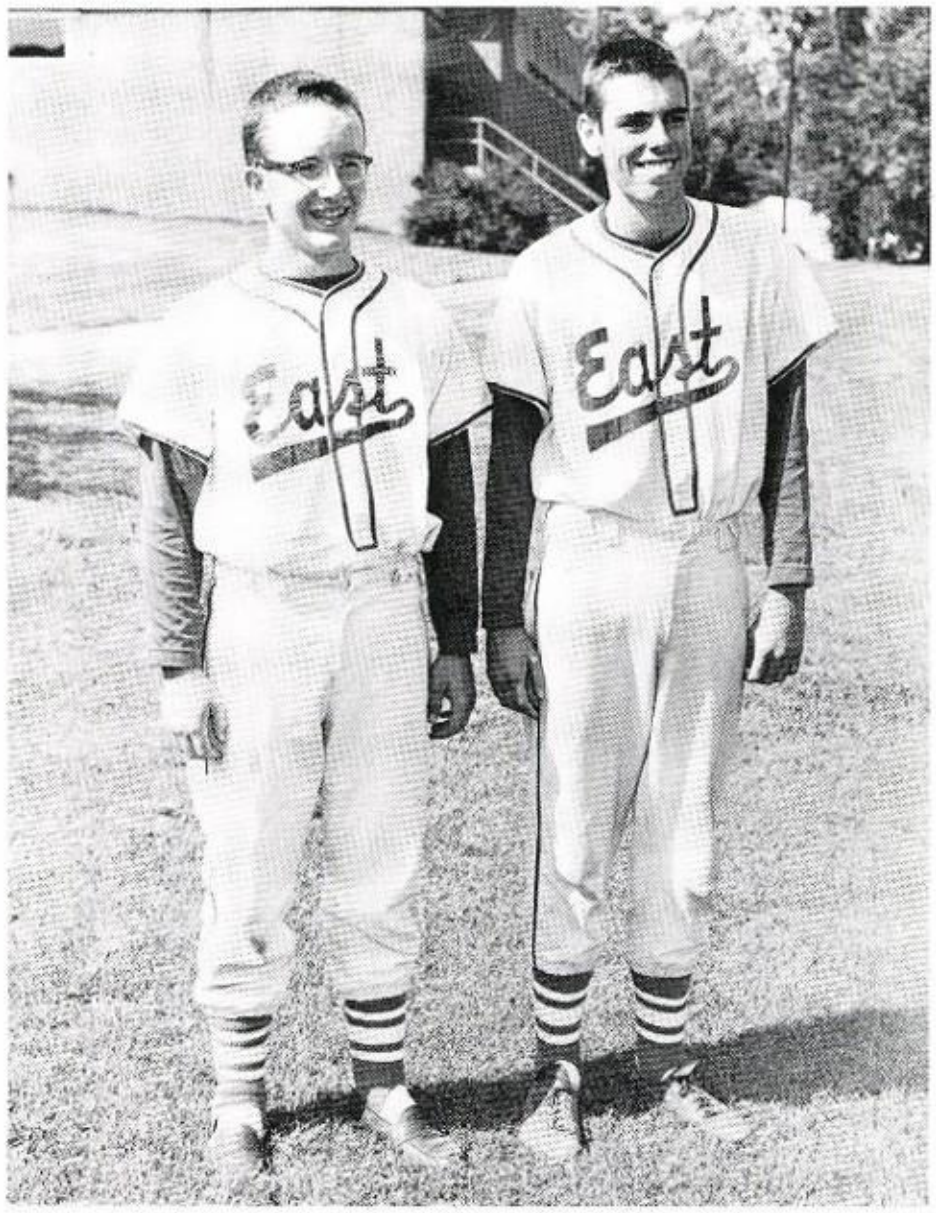
Charlie Crowe won the Decathlon "booby-prize" fro David Large of Fulton. Crowe edged Large in a su prisingly brisk mile race to earn the unscheduled balloo award.

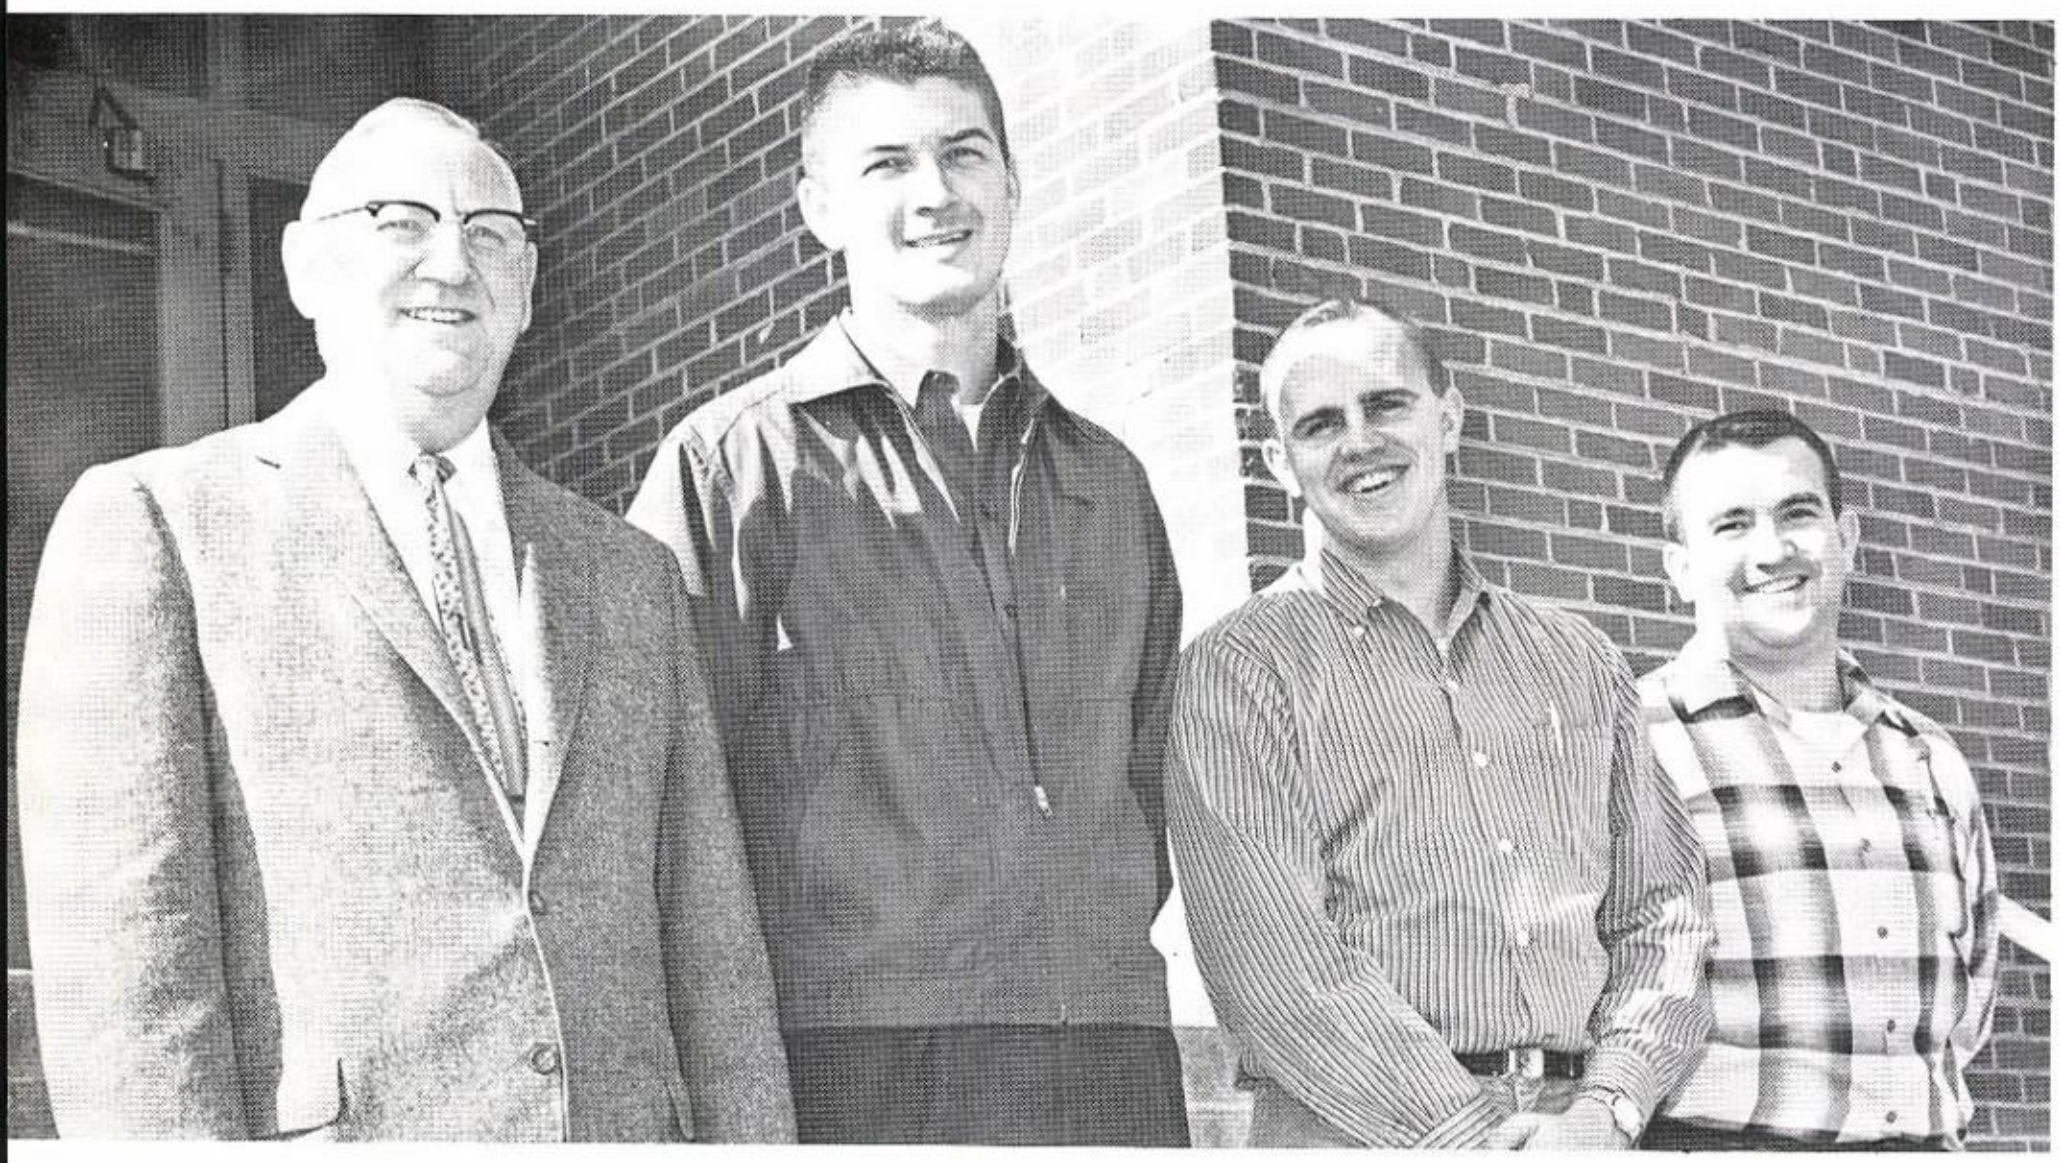
Baseball



Zack Bolt and Butch Conover made the Knoxville Interscholastic League baseball team. Both were deserving of the honor and have shown their ability and determination in playing against competition.

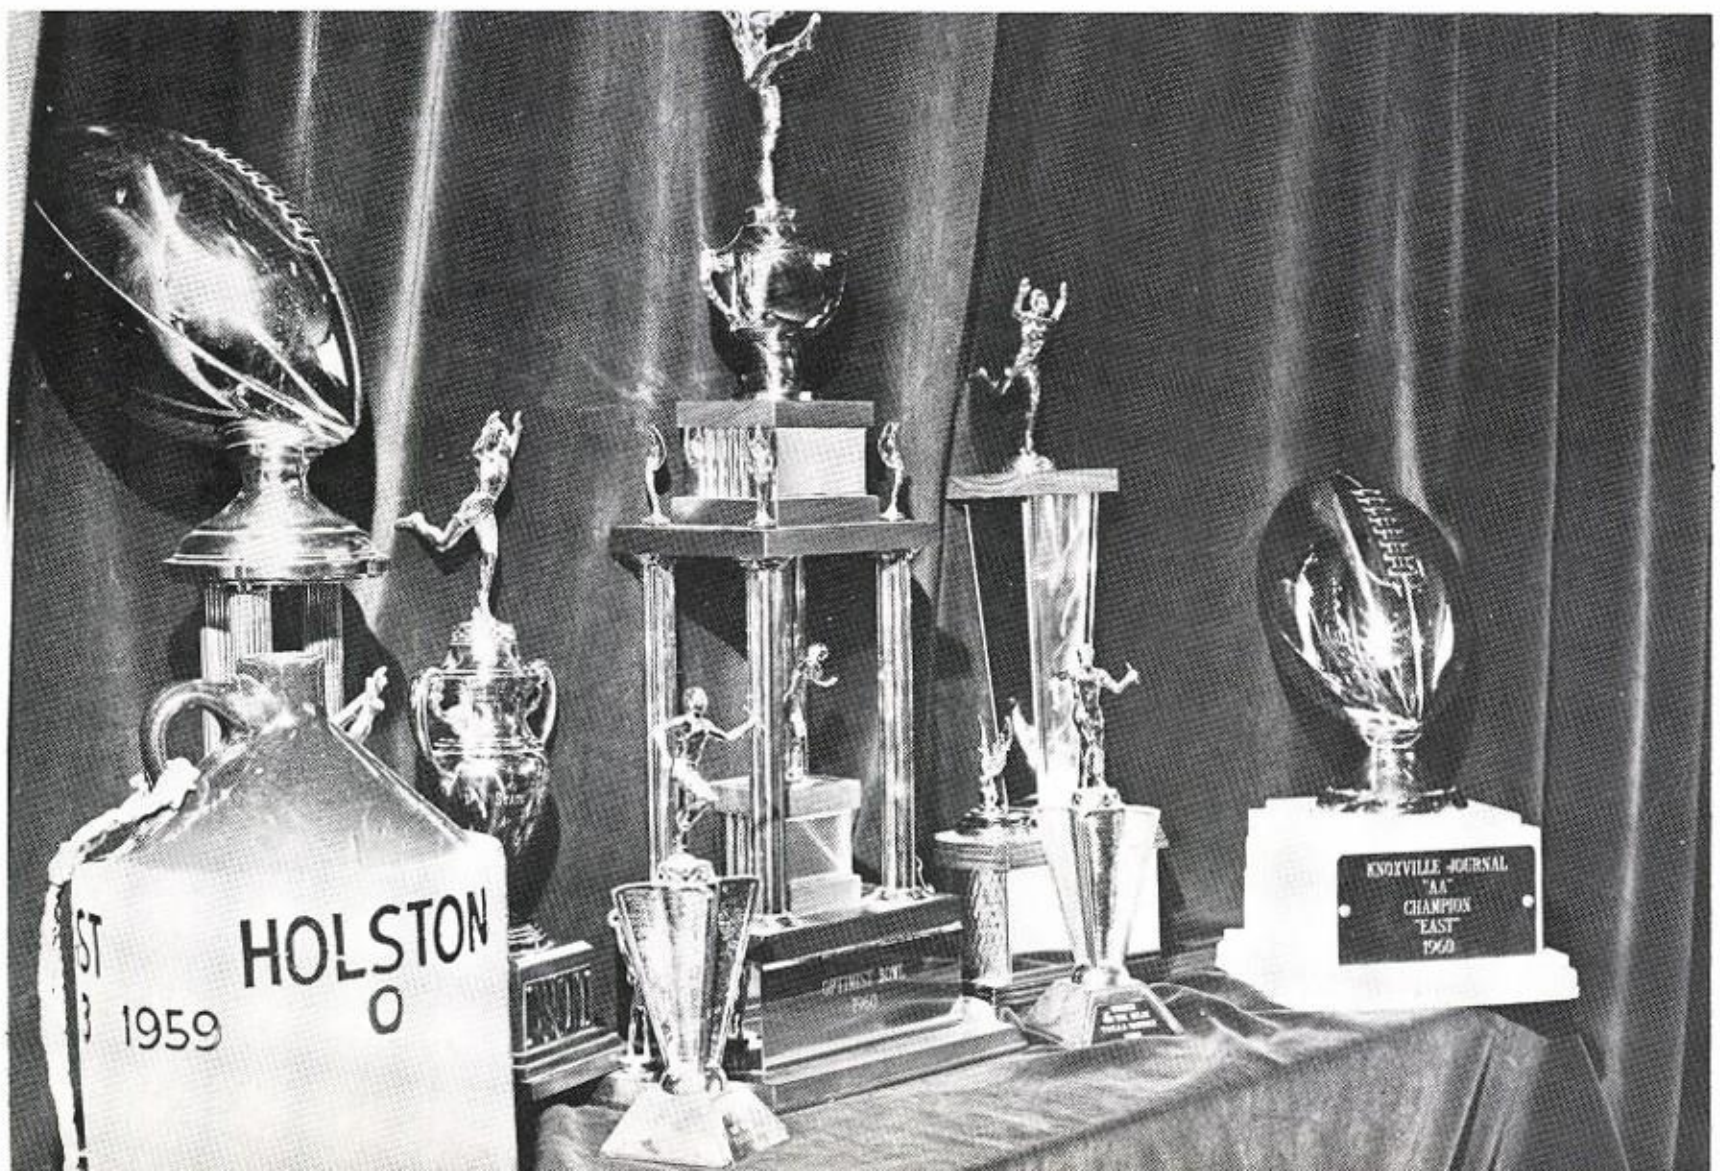
The baseball team, coached by Mr. Bob Polston, re-organized after several years of dormancy. Through a season of hard work this first team put forth a continual effort to do their best. First row: Norman Curtis, Nick White, Tommy Kelly, Zack Bolt, Butch Conover. Second row: Tommy Wall, Charlie Jeffers, Tommy Cannon, Jimmy Atkins, Eddie McElyea, Buddy Hall.

Athletic Directors Train Winners

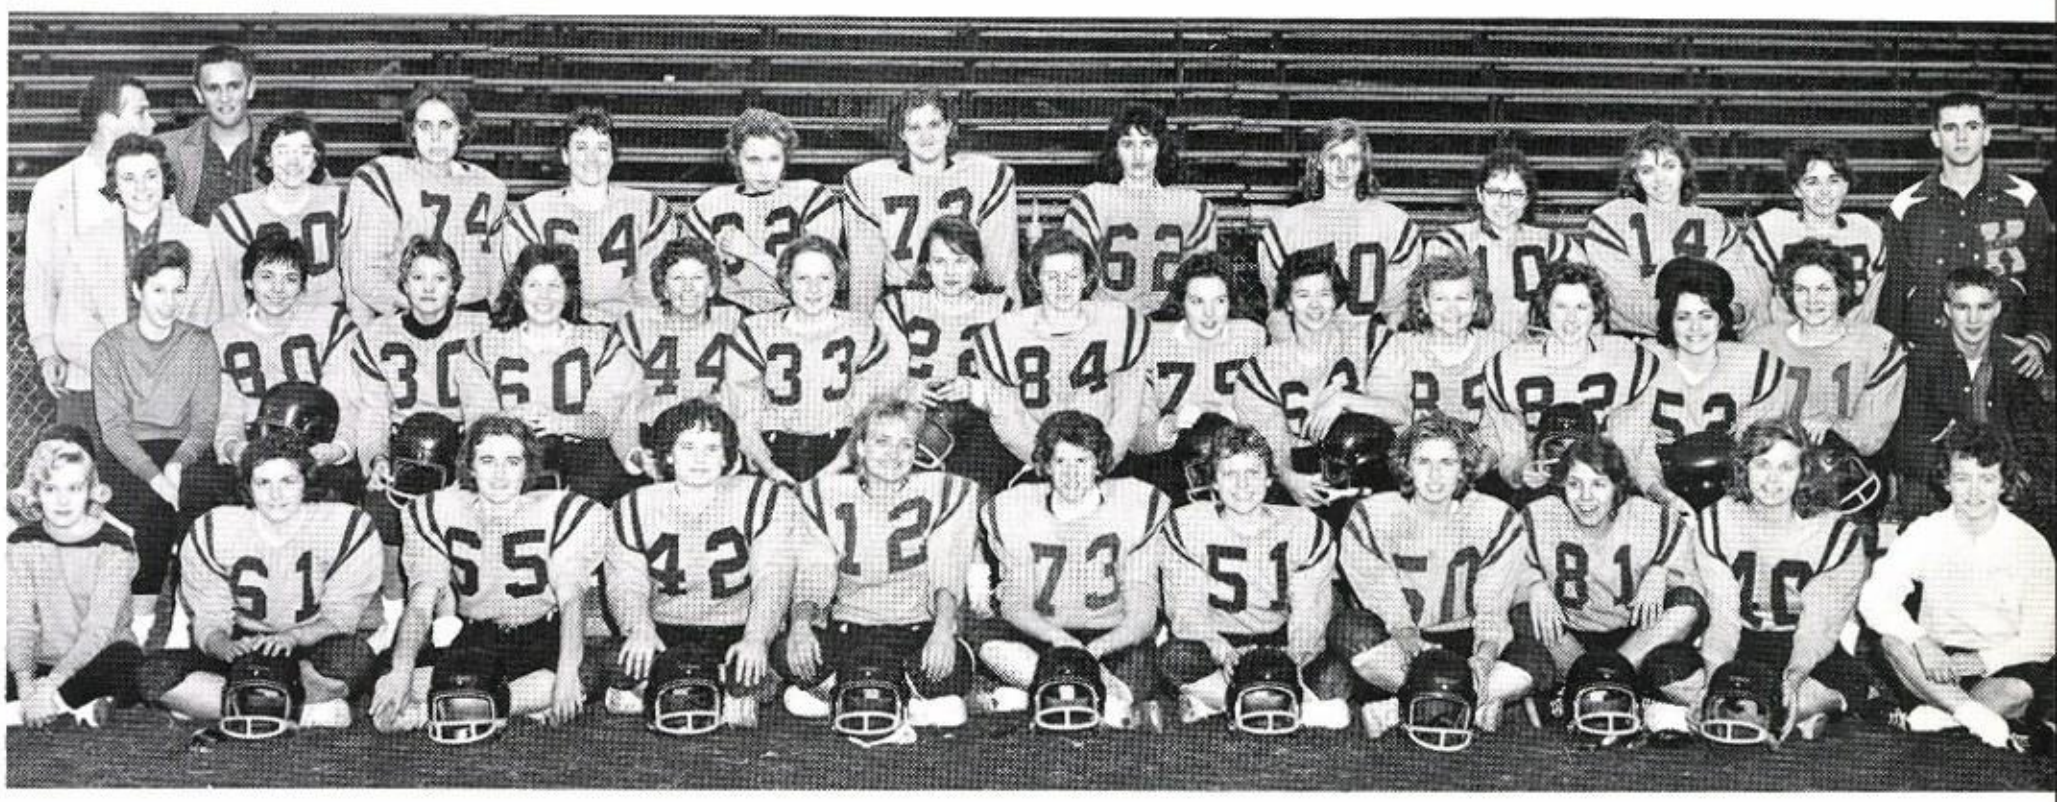


East High Athletic Association is directed by Mr. Buford Bible, veteran basketball coach. Assisting him are Mr. Frank Hall, assistant basketball and football coach; Mr. Bob LeSueur, track and football coach; and Mr. Bob Polston, football and baseball coach.

Through their constant encouragement, the boys have shown a marked improvement in all areas of sports this year, as is evident in the recent additions to our trophy case.



Feminine Football Folly



In a hilarious football game the Anchor Club and Pep Club clashed before a roaring crowd. With a score of 19-7 the Pep Club was victorious. At halftime Grayson Eddy and John Carner were crowned Powder Puff Queens. Pep Club—First row: Bonnie Baker, Llana Stipes, Pat Tracy, Dawn Snow, Edna Jones, Linda Wolfe, Sissy Kinnane, Patsy Nelson, Tibby Linginfelter, Betty Jane May, Patsy Scott. Second row: Sandra McGlothin, Peggy Beets, Dodie Fleenor, Gail Ruth, Linda Jones, Pat Lynch, Lynn Keck, Linda Waller, Co-Captain; Ruth Stafford, Dianne Draper, Anita Geer, Cecilia Sewell, Louise Willingham, Doris Lee Halwes, Leo Browning, Manager. Third row: Moyah Price, Becky Cline, Kitty Lyons, Gail Cline, Marcia Peters, Sue Kirklen, Co-Captain; Ruth Davis, Judy Petree, Becky Driver, Darlene Julian, Loretta Harris, Ted Shelton, Manager. Fourth row: Jim Carner, Max Witt, Managers.

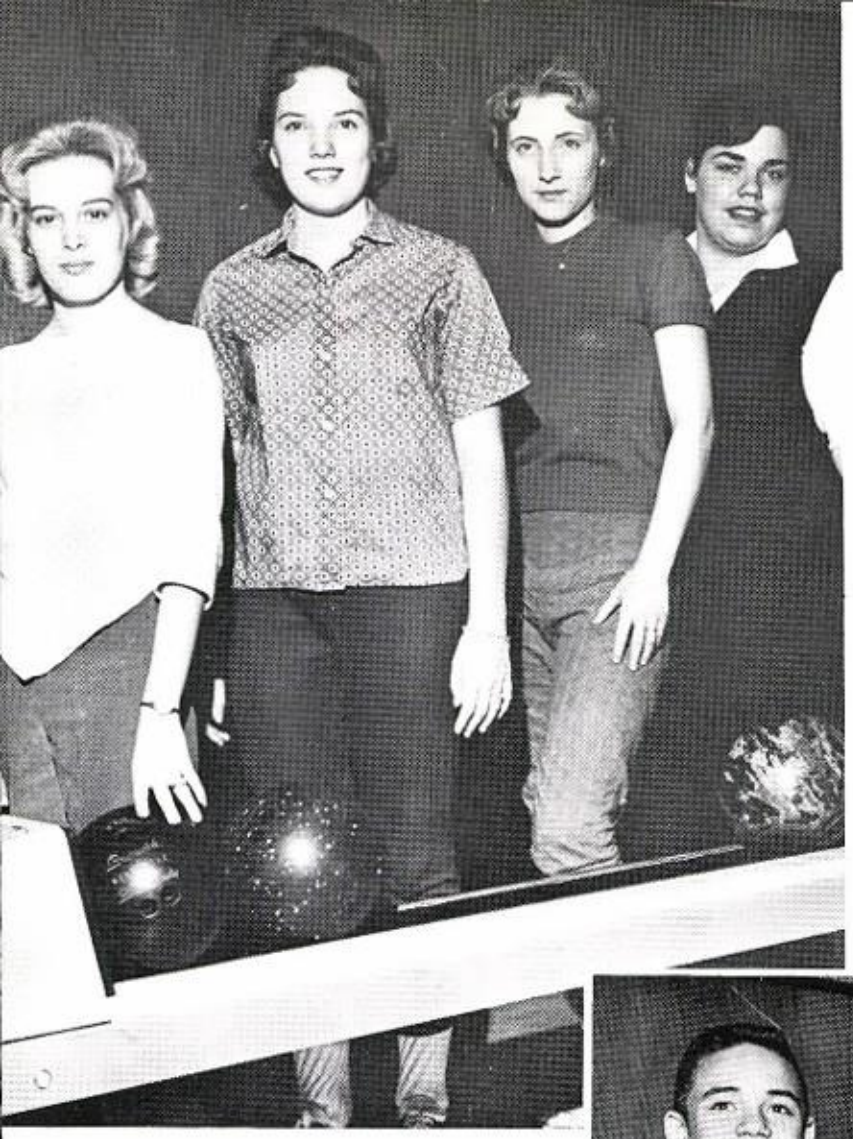
Volleyball Team Retains Trophy

Both the senior and freshman volleyball teams have spent many hours in practice serving the ball, spiking it, and setting it up. Through teamwork the seniors won the City Championship. Because of a one point margin technicality in the championship game it was replayed, but the team was still victorious over 29 other city teams. Although not quite as experienced as the seniors, the freshman team put up a hard fight against their opponents.

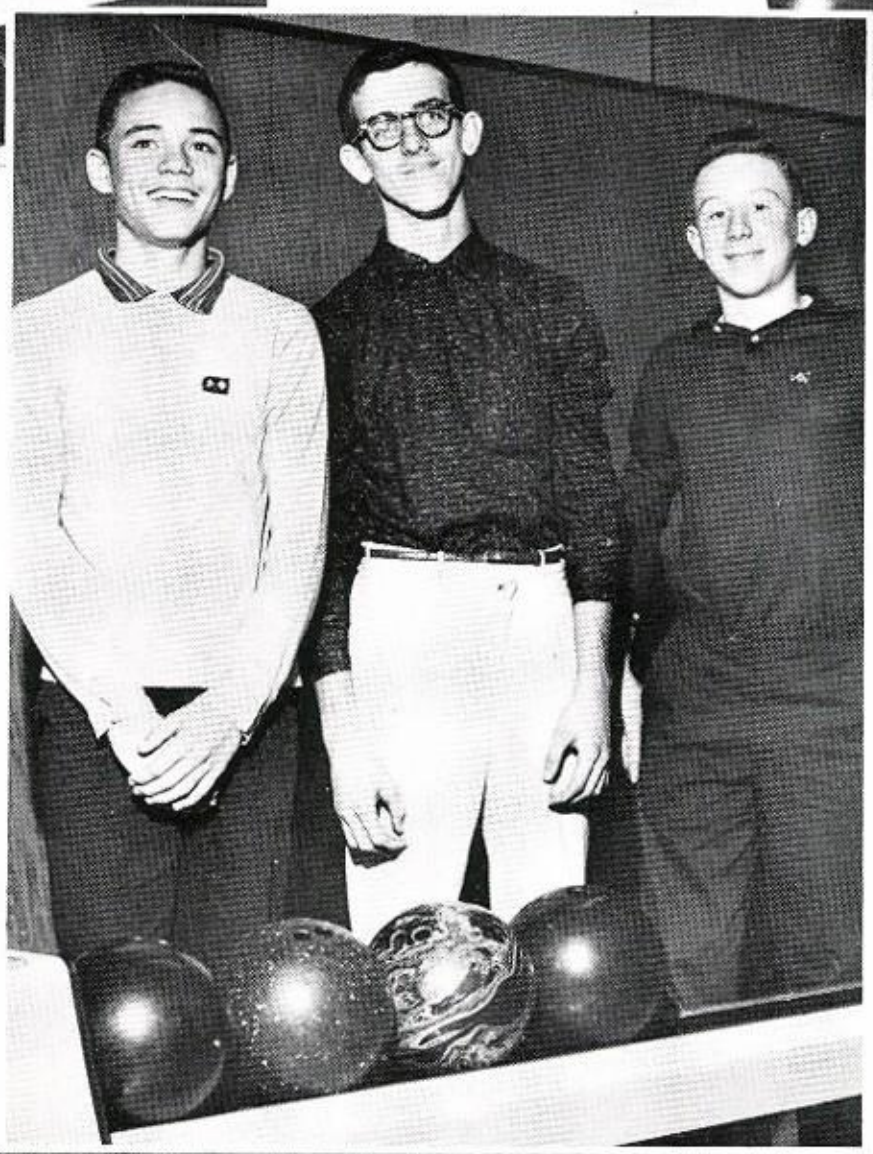
Linda Kirby, Cecelia Sewell, Judy Frazier, Cheryl Hickey, Leslie Billig, Carol Deck, Pat Tracy, Jane Daniel, Iris Moore, Myrna Slovis, Dana Manley, Kay Bounds.

Bowling Teams



MOUNTAINETTES

Upper left: Bonnie Baker, Ruth Stafford, Marcia Peters, Sara Stalsworth. These girls bowled away many pleasant hours at Magnolia Lanes. During the Journal's American Bowling Tournament, Ruth Stafford captured two championships, bowling a total of 574 in two games in the senior girls' singles and 1019 with Marcia Peters in the girls' senior doubles crown.



BLUE AND GRAY

Upper right: Gail Raby, Loretta Harris, Lynda Bolt, Charlesie Massey. Loretta Harris, Captain, voted the best sport in the Journal's American Bowling Tournament, was awarded a sportsmanship trophy.

MOUNTIES

Lower center: Billy Sinclair, Bob Purkey, Joe Paul Atkins, Larry Capps. These boys have a goal to achieve. Every ball they roll is aimed toward a perfect score. With their determination and diligent work, that goal is not far out of reach.

MOUNTAINEERS

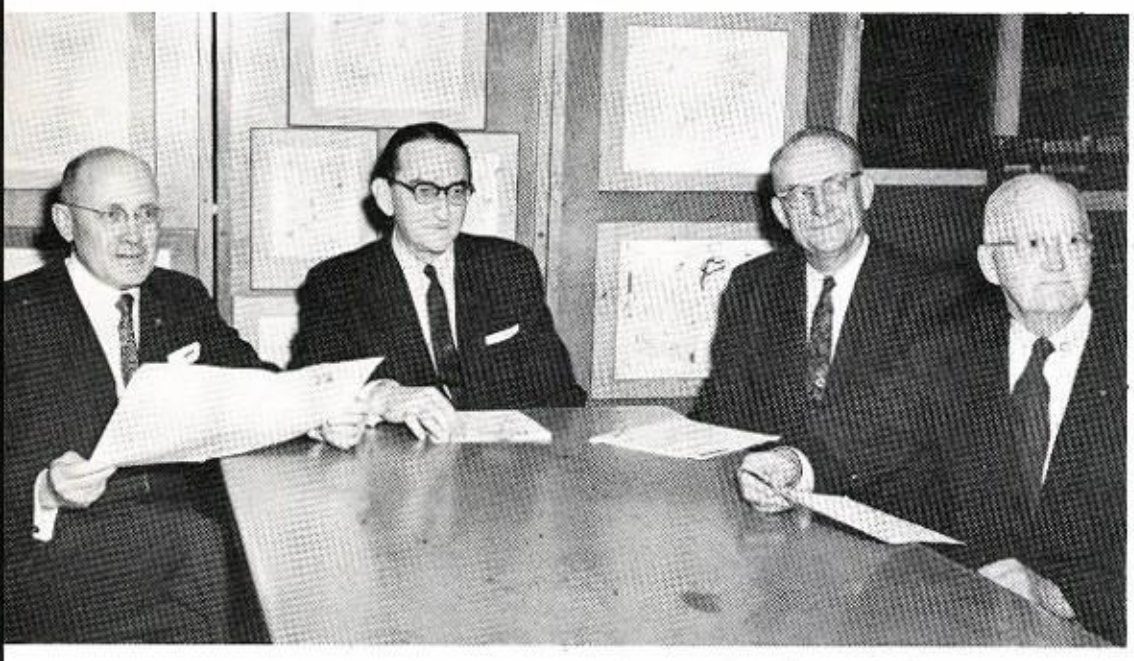
Patti Pierce was crowned Twirp Queen after a week of hard campaigning. Patti was crowned by Nicky White, president of the Junior class; presented flowers by Ronnie Frye, vice-president; and presented a gift by David Jack, treasurer. Decorations of red and white set the background for this event. The queen's court and their escorts are Donna Capps and Donny Anderson, Martha Halliburton and Pete McAbee, Linda Waller and Eddie McElyea, Nick White, President of Junior class; Queen Patti Pierce and Ronnie Frye, David Jack, Treasurer of Junior class; Laverne Wise and Bobby Hillard, Carolyn Miller and David Fry, Ann Huff and John Carner, Cheryl Doyal and Lorry Ruth.

Administrators Prove Active



Big decisions are made by these men concerning our educational policy and its functions. Relieving teachers of many cumbersome problems, this group efficiently handles such matters as finance, personnel, new buildings, and salaries. Left to right: Mr. A. C. Hutson, Business Manager; Mr. Thomas N. Johnston, Superintendent; Mr. Ted Ballard, Director of Personnel; Mr. Curtis Gentry, Director of Instruction.

SUPERVISOR OF SECONDARY EDUCATION

Mr. Roy N. Anderson knows the secret of happy relationships with his teachers. They always feel better after his friendly visits which are invariably helpful.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

This fine group of conscientious citizens of our community are well known to the faculty and students at East. They have shown their interest in the education of our community by enacting measures for improvement of our school system. Seated: Mrs. Gilmer Keith, Mr. A. C. Hutson, Jr., Dr. John Burkhart, Mr. Thomas N. Johnston. Standing: Dr. Charles Moffett, Mr. Robert Ray, Mr. Roy Linville.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

TO PROMOTE the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church, and community
TO RAISE the standards of home life
SECURE adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth
DR. JOHN H. BURKHART

Commencement Speakers Deserve Honor

Chosen from a group of fifteen top students for the 1961 Commencement Speakers are Paula McKamey, Beverly McGee, Royce Cates, and Jane Ragsdale. They always do an efficient job in whatever they undertake. All four have proved in many ways their fitness for representing the Senior class and certainly deserve this honor.

Cafeteria Serves Wholesome, Healthy Food

Serving one of the favorite meals (hot dogs) are Susie Thompson and Lucille Roddy. They always serve the food promptly and efficiently with friendly smiles.

Indispensable School Staff

Our custodians, DeOssie Lewis, Raymond Thompson, and Bun Fulton, and our maid, Geneva Huey, keep our building neat and clean. They are indispensable in keeping it attractive. They are always on hand to offer to do any job to help keep East the beautiful place that it is.

Miss Katherine Elmore, in her friendly and efficient nature, supervises the delicious and well-balanced luncheons that are prepared daily for the school. With the superior help of Mrs. H. A. Pickering, assistant manager; Mrs. Paul Hull, cashier; and Mrs. Eleanor Costner, the luncheons are served smoothly and quickly.

Dorthy Bryant mixes a salad dressing to go over one of the many salads that students have to choose from while going through the lunch line. These salads prepared by the cooks are so attractive and appealing, as well as is all the food served, that it is difficult to decide which to choose.

Preparing tantilizing hot dogs to serve are Lillie Mae Minnifee and Ruby Card, head cook. These women are always seen smiling even though their work is long and tiring. Their efforts are not in vain as one knows as soon as the wonderful food is tasted.

Beacon says Good-bye and many thanks

At this time the staff of the 1961 BEACON recognizes Miss Katherine Elmore, the supervisor of our cafeteria. Again, we applaud and hail her for the many small acts of kindness she has done for the students and faculty alike.

Without the cooperation of Mr. Al Roberts, photographer, the patience of Mr. Ron Wempe, publishing advisor, and encouragement of Miss Lynda Herndon, sponsor, this book could not have been a success. We are indebted to them in many ways.
